GUESTS AT C. OF C. FORUM DINNER FAVOR ETHICAL MOTION PICTURES

Strong Endorsement of Views of Lincoln Hart by Gathering; E. F. Sanders Pays Tribute to City

Ninety per cent of the representative people present at the Chamber of Commerce Forum dinner in the Glendale Union High school cafeteria last night favored ethical motion pictures.

This stand was taken after an illuminative address on the film industry by Lincoln Hart, founder of the Ethical Motion Picture Society of America, who spoke on the subject of "Better Motion Pictures for Sunday."

L. T. Rowley, who presided over the meeting, asked all present who concurred in the views expressed by Mr. Hart to arise. Very few remained seated out of the three score present.

E. F. Sanders also spoke on the benefits to be derived from a Chamber of Commerce and S. L. Rowland briefly described the plan of the Southern California Metropolitan Loan association which is opening a Glendale office.

Secretary James M. Rhoades made a report of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce and a financial statement, a summary of which will be found elsewhere in this issue.

"Purposeful" Production

"The era of purposeful production in the motion picture industry has arrived," said Mr. Hart, in the course of his address. "The Ethical Motion Picture Society of America publicly declares itself established with a definite social purpose as its aim. That is pictures with a purpose."

In introducing his subject and himself, Mr. Hart said that Mrs. C. C. Cooper, wife of the president of the local Chamber, had asked him if he were William S. Hart.

"And to think that Bill is considered by some to be the homeliest man in the films," commented the speaker. "I had to decline the honor of being the great westerner."

Reform from within the industry was the keynote of Mr. Hart's appeal for better pictures on Sundays, as well as other days. He referred to the history of Norway, a nation which was known for its drunkards. Realizing the danger thereof, that country began a constructive campaign which has brought it into the ranks of the most temperate of nationalities.

Influence of Society

Revealing the influence of the society which he founded, the speaker said:

"The Ethical Motion Picture Society of America was formally organized during the last few hours of 1920. It was a historic assemblage that created this moral force throughout the land for the good of mankind. No sooner had the Home Chapter at Los Angeles been organized than additional chapters in neighboring cities came to life, and the movement received immediately the indorsement from men and women who recognized its opportunities to lift up humanity by inspiring better lives and conditions through the great medium of the motion picture.

"With chapters in every city in the land, made up of alert citizens interested in the moral uplift of the individual," Mr. Hart continued, "it is hoped that the aims for which the society was organized may be made effective. With a ready made patronage of the films stamped with the society's trademark, it will be necessary for all other producers to rise to meet the higher level of pictures so brought about. The society is not to be viewed in the light of a censor, nor as a reforming group at all. It aims to bring about an inspirational type of picture through promoting them. It is wholly constructive and not critical!"

Reviewing the source of wealth in the motion picture industry, the speaker declared that no other bus-

Secretary James M. Rhoades Makes His First Informal Report To Membership Local C. Of C.

In speaking of the new links forged in the chain of progress by Glendale's Chamber of Commerce in its activities from February 15 to date, Secretary James M. Rhoades last night made his first informal report to the membership at the Forum dinner.

He reviewed the work which the secretary and his staff had accomplished since he was hired on March 3, speaking of the Forum luncheons and dinners, the activity of the Chamber in the city election and the prompt attention given all civic matters by the board of directors.

Industrial, public utilities, publicity, censorship, civic, legislative, entertainment and hotel committees have been appointed and the progress of each was reported. An auto camp ground committee also is at work, Mr. Rhoades stated, and the independent postoffice committee is now busy pushing petitions to be presented to the postmaster general.

Praise for the president of the organization, C. C. Cooper, also was given by Mr. Rhoades who complimented the directors on their attendance.

The thousands of telephone calls, hundreds of visitors and thousands of pieces of mail matter which have been dispatched from the secretary's office were subject for paragraphs in his report. Numerous inquiries for office rooms, stores and industrial sites are noted daily, he said.

Among the good things accomplished recently by the Chamber, Mr. Rhoades told the members, was that of locating the Ever Ready Heater company here. It will build a factory on San Fernando road and employ sixty or more men. Assistance also has been given other civic bodies in keeping the Pacific fleet intact if possible.

The financial statement read by Mr. Rhoades revealed that from the $9,740.70 revenue a total of $6,339.02 has been expended to date in the exploitation of Glendale, leaving a balance of $3,401.68 on hand. New members are constantly being obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. Horne Home From New York

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Horne of 1445 Valley View road arrived in Glendale Wednesday after an extensive trip in the each which terminated in New York, where Mr. Horne went on motion picture business. Returning by the way of the Canadian Pacific, they visited Montreal, Winnipeg, Banff and Victoria.

The invasion of the American market by German films has materially affected the industry in this country, according to Mr. Horne.

Mrs. Horne, who is known on the stage and screen as Cleo Ridgeley, had the opportunity of visiting her two sisters while in the east, it having been more than five years since she saw them last.

However, both Mr. and Mrs. Horne were glad to get back to Glendale where little Jack and Junie awaited their homecoming.

Mrs. Martin Turner Goes To New York

Mrs. Martin Turner of New York City, who for the last four weeks has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Norton, and mother, Mrs. M. B. O'Connell, of 324 North Maryland avenue, left Monday for her home in the east. Mrs. Turner is a singer of considerable note, having a fine lyric soprano voice. She does a great deal of public singing in the east. Mr. Turner is closely associated with William J. Brady, the prominent New York theatrical producer.

Glendale Folk Visit With Miss A. Turner

Mrs. Charles Morse and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Rohr of 631 East Orange Grove avenue, spent the first part of this week visiting Miss Alma Turner at her home in Ocean Park. Miss Turner is a former resident of Glendale, having graduated from local grammar and high schools. She and Mrs. Rohr, who was formerly Miss Frae Morse, are friends of several years' standing, having been schoolmates all through their high school course.

Miss Turner has lived at the beach city with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Laws, for the last three months, where they are both enjoying a much needed rest.

Kane, vice president; Mrs. Williams, secretary; Mrs. D. G. Godfrey, treasurer; Mrs. A. J. Van Wie, parliamentarian; Mrs. R. Griffin, historian.

Definite action on the matter of equipping the stage of the school with scenery was postponed until fall.

'Dear Katie' Is Told Today's School Pupils Have It 'Pretty Soft'

E. C. Hale, whose correspondence with "Dear Katie" is one of the regular features of The Evening News, visited the Intermediate school last night while parents' night was in progress and this is what he wrote:

Glendale, May 20, 1919.

Dear Katie—Do you remember a long, long time ago, when you and I went to different schools together? I went to the little red school house down the road and you went to the white one on the hill.

Them was the happy days, ain't so, Katie?

And do you remember when I was 14 years old, which in Wisc. meant 5 summers and 9 winters, how I run away from school and never went back?

It was 'cause I had set my heart on becomin' a chimney sweep instead of the president of the U. S.

I been sorry ever since that I didn't stay in school and learn to read and write better. Now I got to work as a starvin' and strivin' reporter all my life, 'cause I don't know nothin'.

And all I got to work with is a literary bump that I got at the age of 4 when I fell out of the baby carriage and lit on my head.

But, anyway, maybe, between going to oratory affairs and school doin's and studing my dictonary, I'll be able to understand French, Arabic, kalistenics, botany and how to shoot dice after while. Well last night I went to some school doin's at a intermediate school here in Glendale, the same being free includin' war tax, to the general public and remorseful reporters.

The Evening News said as how the school kids was going to invite their parents to come on this special occasion to watch 'em work. Well, I figured if that was the case and those school kids was really goin' to work for once 'twould be worth goin' to

Call Public Meeting On June 2 To Discuss Proposed Zoning Laws

Public discussion of the proposed zoning ordinance will take place at the city hall on June 2 at 8 a. m., according to a motion made at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night, with Trustees Henry and Lapham voting against it. They explained that they desired further time to study the proposed ordinance in order to answer questions that would be out at the public hearing. Trustees Bartlett, Robinson and Stephenson voted for the motion and the hearing will be held on the date selected.

The proposed zoning ordinance has already been introduced and is, therefore, pending before the trustees. It was suggested by Trustee Bartlett that the public hearing be held on the date selected.

The proposed zoning ordinance has already been introduced and is, therefore, pending before the trustees. It was suggested by Trustee Bartlett that the public hearing be held so that those favoring the measure and those opposing it might have the opportunity of stating their views before the board was called upon to take final action. A number of written protests against some of the provisions of the proposed ordinance have been filed with the board and will, it is expected, be considered at the hearing on June 2.

BROADWAY CUT-OFF PROJECTS PLACED BEFORE PEOPLE

PETITIONS TO BE CIRCULATED TO OBTAIN SENTIMENT OF OWNERS OF PROPERTY

Petitions urging the Board of City Trustees to proceed with the proposed extension of West Broadway west of Central and the purchase of property on the corner for a public park site will be circulated next week, as the result of action taken by the trustees last night.

J. S. Thompson appeared before the trustees and urged that the improvement of the corner be made, saying that the majority of property owners in the district favored it. He urged immediate action. He also suggested that independent proceedings be taken for the paving of West Broadway from Pacific to the San Fernando Road.

T. W. Watson, city manager, filed a report from a committee which appraised property that would be taken in the Broadway cut-off and also an appraisement on the proposed park site. The estimate on the former was $21,700 and on the latter $11,450. In the discussion that followed, it was declared that both appraisements were low and, on the suggestion of the city manager, new figures will be secured and contained in the petitions to be circulated.

Large Assessment District

It is proposed that a large assessment district be formed to care for the cost of the improvements. The motion to circulate the petitions was made by Trustee Bartlett. They will be presented to property owners by Mr. Thompson and others interested.

Trustee Lapham, who resides in the territory, stated that he had not heard of opposition to the project and many had spoken to him as being in favor of it.

Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the board, declared that the im-

Lewis W. Spencer of San Francisco is the house guest of his niece, Mrs. F. J. McLeod of 434 West Elk street, this city, having arrived from the northern city Thursday morning. Although Mr. Spencer is really an "oldtime" in California this is the first time that he has ever visited Glendale.

After spending a few weeks here with his niece Mr. Spencer will leave for Sheboygan, Wis., where he will visit his brother and other relatives. He has not seen his brother in forty-nine years, and a regular reunion celebration will take place upon his arrival in the Wisconsin city.

Following his visit to Sheboygan Mr. Spencer will go to his childhood home in Rhode Island, where he again intends to make his residence. He has been a citizen of California more than twenty-eight years, and has spent all of that time in the northern part of the state.

HARDING WILL GIVE SOME ADVICE TO BUSINESS WORLD

WASHINGTON, May 20.—President Harding prepared some outspoken advice to the business world today which will be delivered in a speech at New York City Monday. The rough draft of this address which the president is understood to be working on today, indicates that he is growing somewhat impatient with the failure of retail prices to go down toward a pre-war level. President Harding's speech to be delivered at a dinner attended by New York's leading publishers and business men will deal with business and labor problems chiefly.

More Rain Today Brings Season Total To 13.91

Rain in an unusual amount for this time of the year started falling from drear skies last night and by noon today the storm had reached its peak with a steady downpour filling the gutters and chasing pedestrians to cover. It has interfered with several spring events, but the water means thousands of dollars to the bean growers and vegetable growers.

According to H. E. Bartlett, who keeps a record of such things, the rainfall for the storm up to noon was .31 inches and the total for the season 13.91 inches which compares favorably with 16.01 inches last season.

'Half Mile' Washed Away By Rainstorm

Some storm!

The rain washed away a "half mile."

On the Auto Club sign post at Glendale avenue and Broadway under the arrow pointing west on Broadway, it read: "Glendale, one-half mile."

This morning the sign was still there, but the "half mile" wasn't.

Business men in that vicinity attribute the change to the rain.

MANY ELKS ARE WONDERING

A large May pole with streamers, which is being put in place in the center of the ballroom at the Elks' club in preparation for the dance tomorrow night, is arousing a great deal of curiosity and comment. Is this part of the scheme of decorations being planned by the chairman of the committee, J. E. Bellue, or will the guests participate in the May pole dance?

ADVENTIST SCHOOL PUPILS PRESENT FINE PROGRAM

NUMBER OF FEATURES HIGHLY APPRECIATED BY AUDIENCE; TEACHERS' GOOD WORK

A very interesting program was given by the pupils of the Seventh-day Adventist school last night in the church at Isabel street and California avenue. A large audience gave appreciative attention to the program, many of the numbers being cleverly written for the occasion by the teachers.

"Awakening Chorus" was the opening number given by the higher grades. The primary grades followed with nine scripture recitations quoting from memory the first chapter of Genesis, illustrating the work of each day of creation by presenting large placards on which were drawings of sun, moon, stars and animals. These drawings were the work of Mrs. G. B. Miller, the primary teacher who is an artist of pronounced ability.

Elder Westphal offered prayer and following this the intermediate grades rendered two songs, "Sunbeams," and "Swinging 'Neath the Old Apple Tree."

Elizabeth Cook and Miriam Lucas gave a piano duet which was much appreciated.

Little Hazel Emmerson dressed as grandma, with her knitting and with three children seated about her on the floor, recited "Grandma's Sermon."

Very Well Presented

The boys of the seventh and eighth grades gave a cleverly acted out dialogue on temperance, Frank Travis winning warm applause for the realistic and natural delivery of his part.

A trio, "Lullaby," was sung by Miriam Lucas, Elizabeth Cook and Ruth Rombeau, followed by a beautiful pantomine, "The Two Angels," with little Phyllis Kimlin as the central figure.

Charles Jones recited "Barefoot Boy," Frank Travis appearing on the scene as the original, whistling, barefoot boy which he represented perfectly.

"Sail On," a chorus, was well rendered by fifteen of the older pupils.

Two primary girls, Beatrice Tower and Marcella Nelson told in a charming way of the missionary societies of the school and their goals.

Dialogue Is Clever

A very clever dialogue was put on by a group of girls who told of the needs of their school to make it not only a class A school, but also a model school, according to the points required.

Remarks of an appropriate nature were made by the pastor, E. L. Neff, Dr. C. A. Burrows, chairman of the school board, Prof. Max Hill, principal of the school, and Elder R. W. Munson, chaplain of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

A substantial offering was given to the equipment fund.

The closing chorus by the school was, "O, My Soul, Bless Thou Jehovah," followed by benediction.

The school this year is carrying eleven grades with about 125 pupils and five teachers. Next year it is planned to erect more commodious buildings, add the twelfth grade and several more teachers. During vacation needed equipment will be installed and various improvements made.

Prof. Max Hill, principal of the school and the other teachers, W. B. Dart, Mrs. G. B. Miller, Miss Edith Barnes and Miss Mabel De Groat, have done noble and painstaking work in the school and their services have been so appreciated that the school board has engaged them for the coming year. The school will close May 27 for vacation.

The drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Hunt, 351 Myrtle street, with Mrs. A. P. Findlay as assisting hostess. A short business meeting was held, presided over by the curator, Mrs. R. E. Chase, at which time plans were formulated for the drama section dinner, which is to be given June 16.

The reading of Moliere's "Learned Ladies" was completed and the reading of Illsley's "The Feast of the Holy Innocence" was taken up. Mrs. Chase read from some of the latest Broadway productions and discussed "Mary Stuart," by John Drinkwater, "Thy Name Is Woman," and other recent plays.

At the close of the afternoon the hostesses served delicious refreshments of salad, hot rolls and tea.

The next meeting of the drama section will be held June 2 at the home of Mrs. J. I. Wernette, 1330 North Louise street, with Mrs. Frank Ayars as assisting hostess.

Babe Adams, Veteran, Pitches Winning Game

NEW YORK, May 20.—"Babe" Adams went out yesterday and won a ball game from Brooklyn.

"Babe" has been winning ball games for many years and that's the story.

The veteran of the Pittsburgh hurling staff had just celebrated his thirty-ninth birthday when he was called on to work.

"The old arm is still good. He showed as much stuff as he ever had," George Gibson, his teammate of 1909 and now his manager, said today.

Babe is an example for those who aspire to be fit at 40. He came up to the big time in 1908 and became a hero de luxe in the 1909 world's series. He kept going until 1917 when he was voted "through" after eight hard years' campaigning, and was sent to the minors.

Two years on small time were enough for the "Babe" and he came back to the Pirates in 1919. He is still there and he hasn't thought of quitting.

He is the only active player left of the old 1909 champions.

"I feel just as good as I ever did," "Babe" said here today, and he looks not a day over 30.

By superheating the steam in their locomotives Italian railways have effected a 23 per cent fuel economy and heavier trains are being hauled at greater speed.

SYCAMORE CANYON BEAUTY IS RELATED TO 'DEAR KATIE'

CHARM AND ATTRACTIVENESS PROVE PLEASURABLE TO VISITOR, SAYS WRITER

Glendale, May 20, 1921.

Dear Katie—There is one thing that is awful interesting about southern California, that has come to my mind and that is the great variety of foreign lands of which is found a sample here and there.

Sometimes from valley to valley or a hours ride can take you throu a changing panoroma of scenic sights full of allurement and always something new and interesting.

I say of course, see America first, but see So. Cal. before and after and forever, because anybody as wants the atmosphere of a foreign land, here it is to be had. The soil of Cal. is bungalowable. Emagin' anything from olives to oil wells and you can see it growing here.

California of course don't like to advertise which explains as how there is over a hundred people in America that never heard of it.

Now right here in Glendale, I can show to you a big fine castle builded upon a great estate inclosed by some great stone walls.

To my mind's eye it is a picture of old England like you have read about in Bertha Clay books.

Then a short ride from there and I display to you the sunny climes of Spain with old dobe houses, vineyards and old missions.

To people who like Paris, they can be set loose among the shops of Los Angeles where the windows glory in frilly frocks from France and lawns and laces and gimcracks and gewgaws and the Lord knows what not.

Some people like Italy. Then why not Venice, Cal., with its canals and gondolas.

All Located in Southland

If they dream of Hawaii, they can go to Santa Monica and on the Beaches there, they will find ukalala music and bathing girls that make the fair maidens of Hawaii look like a dress parade.

The deserted sands of Africa and the bonnie hills of Scotland are here in Calif.

And if you like the snows of the Northland or the chills of So. Dakota, here on the mountain peaks in winter, you will find the "great white blanket."

If you like a Russian life, well everybody's rushin' to Glendale. For Japan, there is Japaned gardens and —plenty of Japan people.

And there is a Chinatown to look at in Los A.

The mountain scenarios of So. Cal. are nicer than the same in Norway, Sweden or South Chicago.

Or if you want to spend the week end in Alaska, Mexico, Peru, India, Australia or Kokomo, Ind., you will find the scenes of those hamlets in the movie world of Hollywood very realistically. Katie, it is phenomenal.

Why would anybody take 80 days to see the world, when it can all be seen in this wonderland in 80 hours. Katie, ain't it so. And where everybody owns or owes for a automobile or somethin' that looks like one.

Bit of Old Switzerland

And right here in the beautiful city of Glendale I found today a bit of old Switzerland. Here's how it was. This morning I got up early as is usual and I shaved myself roughly by which I mean that my razor was as dull as a Sunday in Pomona.

I started out real early, cause the early bird gets the worm, but how about the early worm, ain't so Katie.

After a hike for half a hour, I come to a sign where it said "Sycamore Canon," so I begun to follow the road kinda curious.

There was mountains on both sides of the pretty valley, not very far apart. As I wended along I begun to see a lota little homes scattered around kinda miscellaneous like and some of 'em seemed to be hangin' by a hair's breadth on the sides of the hills and the farms was almost perpindicular.

Then I saw B hive and chicken ranches and goat farms with kids playin' round.

There was fruit orchards and walnut groves and everything.

The day was going to be awful warm, cause it was about nine degrees over fairandhot already, but a nice cool breeze come from the mountains which is like a giant electric fan to Glendale in summer and summer of course in Calif. is permanent (advt.).

Well, Katie, there was more curves in this road than there is on the P. E. and it was shaded by big trees and connisewer of beauty as I am, it was a feast for my artist eye to devour.

Mocking birds was mocking from the cedar trees; a bunch of quails scurried throu the grass, a squirrel scolded awful angry at me for hiking throu his private domain. And a owl, (from some hollow tree maybe), hooted a few hoots before goin' to sleep for the day.

At last I got to a curve in the road on a hill and, Katie, I gazed onto the cutest land's cape that I even seen in my life—but of course I ain't lived all my life yet. I sat down out of pure enthusism.

Just Imagine All This

Eemagin' if you can, a low mountain in the near distance, colored in delight to the artist eye. A mass of seven shades of green with a splash here of purple and yellow and a splotch there of red and white.

There was flowers of every color of my variegated imagination. The sun beyond had climbed high enough to pierce it's casting beams down onto the sloping sides and the shadows of the cypress and the magnolia and dainty acacia and the towering Eucaliptis form a thousand inviting shady nooks. And to and fro, dark shadows of the receding night seem to linger as if loathe to be driven out by the inevitable light of day. And there upon the graceful and steep slopes of the mountain's side are herds of goats and cows and sheep grazing and munching the dew drenched grass. It is very pacific.

It looks as quiet as a ball park on a rainy Sunday.

The only sounds in the still morning air is the songs of many birds, the mocking bird louder than the rest.

From the distance, comes to my pink ears the sweet tonk-a-tonk of a cow's bell and from yonder chicken ranch, I hear the crowing of roosters and the cackling of a thousand hens that are the only animals I guess, that can lay around and make money.

A tiny hummin' bird poses in mid air, close by, quite unawafe of my existence and it pokes it's inquisitive bill into the depths of the Calif. poppy.

Really Quite Charmed

Katie maybe you'll be surprised at my display of scentimental raptures, but I was charmed.

And you know how I was born, or gifted or burdened (as you like it) with a artistic temperture and I know how to pour the perfume of roses into a gasoline tank to make the motor run, but while I have the essence of this poetical picture on my finger tips. I can't seem to explain it to you via the U. S. mails.

It is a picture that wouldn't get no justice from a starvin' artist and to the camera fiend it is a wild dream come true. Such, Katie, is this bit of old Switzerland on the lacey edge of the Jewel City.

And the charm and beauty of it all has a meaning all it's own.

I got to close now Katie for this time, cause I forget to take my memory lesson this mornin' and must get busy at it.

Please pardon, poor pen, paper, pessimism, peculiar philosophy, poetical phrases plus perceptible persistence.

Personally yours
E. C. HALE.

ELKS AND VAN NUYS TO CONTEST FOR FIRST PLACE

LOCAL BASEBALL SQUAD WILL VISIT NEIGHBORING CITY FOR GAME ON SUNDAY

The steadily improving and fast baseball team of the Glendale Elks will play their second game of the newly organized San Fernando Valley league season Sunday afternoon against the Van Nuys aggregation. According to the rules of the league the contest will be played on the Van Nuys grounds, and local fans who do not make the trip with the team are sure to miss a good exhibition.

Glendale and Van Nuys are tied for first place in the league standings, as both won their game last week. Therefore the winners of Sunday's tussle will remain on top, which means that said tussle will be a battle royal for first honors.

Watching Scoreboard

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero—Ty Cobb. The manager of the Tigers busted a home run in the fifth, beating the Red Sox 3 to 2.

Jim Yorke who was tossing hand grenades some time back with the third division, threw lots of bombs among the Giants, the Cubs winning, 5 to 3.

Gardner's single in the eleventh drove in the run that gave the Indians a 4 to 3 victory over the Athletics.

Marquard was easy for the Braves and the Reds lost, 5 to 1.

Gharrity's home run with two on helped Washington beat the Browns, 8 to 5.

Lebourveu's two-base error, Stock's sacrifice and Mann's sacrifice fly gave the Cards a 3 to 2 victory over the Phils in the eleventh.

The Yankees pounded three White Sox pitchers all over the yard and won, 11 to 4.

Babe Adams' arm was working in 1884 form and the Pirates beat the Robins, 7 to 5.

City Attorney Makes Report Upon Franchise Of Pacific Electric

Hartley Shaw, city attorney, at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night, submitted the following opinion relative to the matter of having the Pacific Electric Railway company stop its cars at Los Feliz road:

"You have also asked me to report to you upon the question as to what provisions are contained in the franchise of the Pacific Electric Railway company relative to stopping its cars at Los Feliz road.

"In reply I beg to say that the Pacific Electric Railway company has no franchise in that part of the city. As far as I am informed it has no franchise anywhere upon Brand boulevard, its rights being derived by grants of private rights of way from various property owners, and as to street crossings, its rights apparently being derived from section 465 of the Civil Code, which provides that every railroad corporation may construct its roads across streets and highways. This section does not apply to streets within a municipal corporation except upon authority from the city. But at the time the Pacific Electric Railway company was built through what was formerly Tropico, including the crossing of Los Feliz road, there was no incorporated city in that territory and hence the railroad company could acquire the right to cross the streets under the section of the code referred to. This section of the code contains no restrictions about places of stopping trains or cars.

"There is a right of way deed which contains a clause relating to this matter; it is a deed made April 19, 1906, by L. C. Brand and wife to Los Angeles Interurban Railway company, and recorded in book 2679, page 95 of deeds. This conveys a right of way between Cypress avenue and Los Feliz road, and contains this provision: 'It is agreed between the parties hereto that the said second party is to stop all of its local passenger cars to take on and let off passengers at Myrtle avenue as shown on said map hereto attached.' The street referred to as Myrtle avenue is now known as Los Feliz road.

"This provision in the deed, however, is a mere personal agreement between the parties to said deed, and neither the city of Glendale nor any other party is in a position to enforce it. It is not made a condition of the ownership of the right of way and hence even the grantors could not have the land forfeited for breach of agreement. It referred, moreover, to only local passenger cars and would doubtless not be operative on cars which were operated from other points such as Burbank without stopping for local business. The Supreme court has also decided that such a stipulation in a deed of a railway right of way is subject to the powers of the railroad commission, and that that commission may dispense with performance of such an agreement.

"I have examined other deeds to the right of way of the railway in this part of the city and the only other one which seems to refer to stopping is a deed made by W. C. B. Richardson dated August 11, 1903, and recorded in book 2646, page 55 of deeds. This conveys a right of way from a line about Cerritos avenue southerly to the Southern Pacific tracks and beyond, and contains an agreement that the company will stop its cars, except the through trains, at such stations as Richardson may establish. This deed also is subject to the same observations made upon the Brand deed—that is, that the right to enforce it is only in the grantor and that the railroad commission has entire power over the subject."

Elizabeth Mottern Is On School's Program

Glendale will be represented at the program to be given tonight at Normal Hill Center, Los Angeles, by Miss Elizabeth Mottern, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern of 211 North Adams street, who will sing "A Maiden Loves a Little Boy" (Cloughleighter); "Reveries" (Speaks); "The Answer" (Terry), and "The Spring Song of the Robin Woman," from opera "Shamewis" (Cadman).

Miss Mottern on May 28 will accompany for Miss Lillian Backstrand, who will be the vocal soloist on the Senior Piano Recital given by Miss Marguerite Halber, a former graduate of Glendale High school.

During the Los Angeles "Music Week" Miss Mottern will accompany each day for pupils of Miss Backstrand and will sing in a trio on Monday of that week and sing a solo on Wednesday.

On June 3, she will give the vocal numbers for the Polytechnic Evening High School commencement; June 7, will render vocal numbers at the Ebell clubhouse; June 17, at the U. S. C. High School commencement.

The greatest pleasure to which she is looking forward is "Commencement Week" of the University of Southern California, June 19-24, when the new $600,000 building and the $30,000 pipe organ will be dedicated by a Festival of Music. Miss Mottern will sing with the Choral Union in Hayden's "Creation" and participate in the Commencement Exercises of the College of Music of the U. S. C. on the evening of June 24.

Turns Sum Of $6.42 To Conscience Fund

BOSTON—A contribution to the "conscience fund" was made to Commissioner of Corporations and Taxations Henry F. Long. He received $6.42, the 42 cents being in Stamps. Commissioner Long said this is the first contribution of its kind in the history of the office. The letter was mailed in Quincy, Mass., and contained only the money and the inscription. "For the conscience fund." Commissioner Long turned the money over to the state treasurer.

Richard Berry Seeks To Set Hike Record

Richard Berry of North Louise street claims to be one of Glendale's foremost hikers, all because of his thirty-mile tramp which he enjoyed last Tuesday. On that day he walked from his home in North Glendale out to Verdugo Road, up that thoroughfare to Montrose, from there to the Arroyo Seco by way of La Canada and Flintridge, up the canyon through Oak Wild, Barley Flats, Pine Flats, Switzer's Camp, Opid's Camp, Rubio Canyon and then over Mount Lowe. Quite a day's work, Berry asserts.

VARIED PROGRAM IS BEING PREPARED TO GIVE ELKS

FITTING WELCOME IS PROMISED VISITORS; GREAT PAGEANTS WILL BE ARRANGED

In preparation for the Elks' Grand Lodge reunion to be held in Los Angeles, July 11 to 17, an elaborate and mammoth program of entertainment is being planned for the executive committee in charge, of which Motley H. Flint, vice-president of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings bank is chairman.

The convention, it is conservatively estimated, will bring to Los Angeles and other cities of the southland, approximately 50,000 visitors, and the public-spirited citizens who have assumed the responsibility of preparing a royal and fitting welcome for the throngs, are leaving nothing undone which shall maintain southern California's reputation for a generous and whole-hearted hospitality.

While many details are yet to be worked out in the big gala program for the convention week, two special features have already been announced for the event.

Plan Electrical Pageant

One of these will be a brilliant electrical pageant to be staged through the co-operation of the various moving picture studios in and near Los Angeles. The parade will be of wonderful beauty and spectacular interest and one that could be duplicated in no other city of the world, since in no other city are there the facilities for such a mammoth spectacle.

The second big feature, which is to be held as a national exhibition, will be a great sky-pageant to be staged at the Speedway in Los Angeles. It will be a two-days' meet and will feature an aerial program of daring stunts, races of all kinds, spectacular acrobatics and thrills galore.

Directors of the Los Angeles Speedway, of which J. M. Danziger is president, are entering into plans for the big meet with the greatest enthusiasm, and together with the Elks' executive committee and representatives of the Aero club and the Army and Navy are working out a super program, with the plan of making the event the biggest thing ever attempted in the history of aviation.

H. G. Chaffee Company Shows Price Decline

Comparing prices of May 21, 1920, and those which will prevail in grocery lines tomorrow, the H. G. Chaffee company proves in so many words and figures that prices have come down to a point where it is economy to be a "good liver."

This information contradicts the propaganda that retailers have not reduced their prices. They have done so as fast as market conditions would permit them to do so without failure, according to the Chaffee attitude. Likewise, in other lines, Glendale buyers will find noticeable reductions in the prices of practically everything advertised today as compared with similar goods a year ago.

The comparison in the grocery prices compiled by the H. G. Chaffee company appears in the company's advertisement in this issue of The Evening News.

Improper Conditions On Air Line, Charge

CHICAGO, May 20.—Charges of improper conditions on the Salt Lake-San Francisco air mail service, made by William H. Jones, former pilot, were presented to federal officials here today who are conducting an investigation into the service.

Jones sent a telegram to C. C. Eversole who made charges of inefficiency in the service and of men being sent up in machines prepared by drunken mechanics in the Chicago district.

"Conditions are just as bad on the Salt Lake-San Francisco branch as you described in the midwest," Jones said. "Many forced landings are made because of pilots being sent up in dangerous planes."

Jones also complained in a telegram to Postmaster General Will H. Hays. He is now connected with a San Francisco aerial club.

Seeks Wide Publicity Behalf 'Slacker Lists'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 20.—F. W. Galbraith, commander of the American legion, sent letters to all department commanders of the legion today supporting the appeal of the war department for wide publicity of the "slacker lists" being issued by the department.

Publication of the lists in newspapers through the country "is the only satisfactory means of protecting the innocent and punishing the ones guilty," Galbraith wrote.

Moves Made By Parr And Davis Families Like Two Peas In Pod

S. P. Davis and F. W. Parr are engaged in the real estate business at 112 South Brand boulevard.

Both decided to move. They agreed on the same street, but it was necessary that one go north and the other south. So now you will find:

Mr. and Mrs. Davis residing at 217 North Orange and Mr. and Mrs. Parr domiciled at 225 South Orange.

Which reminds one of the similarity of two peas in a pod.

Thousands Of Sect To Make Homes In Mexico

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 20.—Between 15,000 and 20,000 Mennonites will begin an exodus from Canada to Mexico within the next three weeks, officials said here today. They will spend more than $1,000,000 in railroad fares. Negotiations for transportation will be closed probably this week.

The members of the order, who claim they have been persecuted by the Canadian government, will seek asylum in Mexico, their agents said. Passengers, livestock, farm equipment and household goods will make up special trains to cross the country from north to south.

Rev. J. F. Wiebert of Herbert, Sask., was here today arranging for transportation of hundreds from various points in Canada. They will settle in West Durango, Mex. The Mexican government will give them free transportation from the Mexican border.

'Spirit Baby' Dies Of Strangulation, Report

DEBEQUE, Colo., May 20.—The "spirit baby" of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer died of strangulation, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury, returned today. The body of the infant was exhumed from the back yard of the Mayer home after neighbors reported the death to officials.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayer assert the infant was born of the spirit through immaculate conception and not of the flesh, and that they had received a message from the "great beyond" that the child had not long to live. The baby was born May 4 and died May 17 from natural causes, according to the father.

No arrests have been made although police are investigating the case.

Message Of Greeting Given Presbyterians

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 20.—President Warren G. Harding in a "word of greeting" to the Presbyterian general assembly in session here said:

"Surely there is no intellectual and moral body in the country to whom we may more confidently turn for wise assistance and sage guidance than to the Christian people who make up the body of our churches.

"Whatever may stimulate them to greater activity, and, I feel to increasing recognition of the concern of Christian citizenship with the administration of our public affairs, must necessarily be of service to the nation."

A. McCarty Opens New Plant And Floral Shop

A. J. McCarty, a young landscape gardener, who decided to engage in the plant and floral business for himself a little over a month ago, cast about for a suitable location, but at the time there were none available.

This did not daunt him. He went into business anyway, having his nursery in the back yard of his home and using a wheelbarrow for his store. Now he has found a place at 415 West Broadway, which is suitable for handling plants, seeds, shrubs, sprays, in fact, everything for the garden. He also is specializing in cut flowers.

BEES AND SOUTH SEAS IN NEW BOOK LIST

FREDERICK O'BRIEN'S LATEST STORY OF TAHITI NOW ON LOCAL LIBRARY SHELVES

Do you want to know how to keep bees?

Or how to get rid of them?

Or are you interested in the stories of the South Sea Islands?

At any rate your desire for information can be satisfied, for books on these and other subjects are included in those released for distribution at the Glendale library this week.

The following books were offered the public at yesterday afternoon's book review:

"Mystic Isles of the South Seas," written by Frederick O'Brien of Glendale, who at the present time is on a cruise in the South Seas in search of additional material for a new book. This book, "Mystic Isles of the South Seas," tells of another of those isles of romance and charm in the far Pacific. It is beautiful Tahiti.

Other Interesting Volumes

"First Lessons in Bee-Keeping," by C. P. Dadant.

"A Thousand Answers to Bee-Keeping Questions," by Dr. C. C. Miller.

"The Foreign Trade of the United States," by L. C. Ford and T. F. Ford.

"The Crusades," by Archer and Kingsford.

"Affinities, and other stories," by Mary Roberts Reinhart.

"The Brimming Cup," by Dorothy Canfield. This is the story of the few months that test a life. The author not only portrays a single life, but the life of the whole community in which her heroine's story is imbedded.

"Handicraft in the Home," by Mabel Tuke Priestman.

Submits Report Upon Verdugo Sewage Plans

T. W. Watson, city manager, submitted the following report to the board of trustees last night relative to the plans for sewage disposal for Verdugo Canyon district:

"In regard to plans for sewage disposal for Verdugo Canyon district:

"The election proceedings for the issuance of $50,000 of bonds of municipal district No. 3 for the installation of a sewer system in the Verdugo Canyon having been approved by Attorney J. C. Thompson of New York, as reported to your board by city attorney at last meeting, we would respectfully request authorization to have plans and specifications prepared therefor: The preparation of plans and specifications for the trunk line extending from the north line of tract 250 along Canada boulevard, Verdugo road and Glendale avenue to the proposed disposal site to be prepared by the city engineer.

"We would also request permission to secure from Olmsted & Gillelen a proposition to prepare plans and specifications for a modern sewage disposal plant of sufficient capacity to take care of the district to be served; these plans to provide for a unit of modern design, one that will recover the solids and convert them into a commercial fertilizer product and that will produce an effluent that can be used for surface irrigation without objectionable odors; the entire plant to be inclosed and the whole process to be accomplished without producing any odors that would be objectionable, using the activated sludge process if practicable.

"We are confident that the results set forth above can be obtained and believe it worth while in this connection to provide for the installation of a plant of this kind inasmuch as the success of such a plant would no doubt have a material bearing in the consideration of plans for general sewage disposal for the entire city."

Virginia Warwick Plays Opposite Jimmie Adams

Miss Virginia Warwick, petite little brunette, who has been playing with Tom Mix in his latest western, has joined the Mermaid comedy forces at the Astra studio on Verdugo road, Glendale, and will play opposite Jimmie Adams, the featured mirth-maker. "Chuck" C. F. Riesner is director and Albert Austin is co-directing in the present picture, many scenes of which are being "shot" in Glendale.

The largest Elk in the world, "Big" Tom Woods of Ocean Park and Mark "Slim" Hamilton also are the juvenile stars working on the lot with several dozen youngsters.

Miss Warwick is widely known for her work with Sennett, Fox Sunshine and L-Ko comedies, and she played "Chi Chi" in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," from Ibanez novel of the same name. Rex Ingram directed that film which is now showing in Los Angeles and is due for an early release at one of the local theatres.

Astra feels fortunate in having secured such an able player as the feminine foil for Adams' comedies which are shown during each month at a theatre here. The many local characters and scenes make them more than interesting locally.

Presbyterians Favor Reorganizing Agencies

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 20.—A referendum on reorganizing and consolidating the boards and agencies of the Presbyterian church was recommended to the Presbyterian general assembly in session here, by the committee which has been studying the question.

The committee declared it had found no law which would prohibit the consolidation.

Dr. Timothy Stone of Chicago was chairman of the committee, consisting of four other ministers and five laymen. Two methods of reorganizing suggested were:

First—Calling for a comprehensive plan for reorganization of the entire work of the church including a reduction in the number of boards and agencies.

Second—Consolidation of existing boards on the lines already initiated at previous assemblies.

A movement was also launched for the union of all Presbyterian and reformed churches into one organization. It was proposed in the report of the committee on church co-operation and union.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Formoe Have House Warming

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Formoe of 471 West Lexington drive entertained a number of their friends recently at a house warming party, they having been in their new home just about two weeks. One of the interesting diversions of the evening was the christening of the new player piano which Mr. Formoe had presented as a birthday gift to Mrs. Formoe. Cards, games, music and dancing occupied the remainder of the evening, at the close of which refreshments were served. Guests present included Mrs. Formoe's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Travis, of Los Angeles, another sister, Miss Minnie Thompson of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Evans and daughter, Mae, of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. O. Adams and daughter of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ella Thompson of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson and daughter of Los Angeles and Ed Moniot of Glendale.

Seeks Revenge Upon Tailor; He's Arrested

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Fred Raife had a suit that was the pride of his heart. One day he sat on a tack. A large hole appeared in the trousers. Fred took the suit to a tailor to be mended and pressed. The tailor charged him $1.25. Fred thought $1 was enough. They clashed. After the fight Fred went home, but later he returned. This time, the police said, Fred carried a gun. The argument over the suit was renewed In the midst of it there was a sharp report and the tailor clapping his hand to his hip found a hole in his own suit at the identical spot where he had mended one in Fred's.

"Now we're quits," shouted the latter, according to the tailor.

But the tailor didn't think so. Fred will face Judge Houston charged with committing an assault with a deadly weapon.

Bicycle Is Sold For 30 Cents Through Ad

A 30-cent classified advertisement in the columns of The Glendale Evening News sold a second hand bicycle which was offered by the H. L. Miller company, 109 South Brand boulevard, at the bargain price of $10.

Although the Miller agency deals in real estate, insurance and similar lines, they feel quite elated over the results gained through the liner columns of this paper.

ASK FOR ORDINANCE ON LAYING WATER SERVICE MAINS

TRUSTEES TAKE ACTION UPON CHARTER PROVISIONS TO HELP IMPROVEMENTS

Hartley Shaw, city attorney, at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night was authorized to prepare an ordinance governing the laying of water service mains, the action being taken on the following recommendation from T. W. Watson, city manager:

"We are having a number of applications that proceedings be taken for the laying of water service mains in accordance with the policy adopted therefor by the voters of the city at the election held on March 29; that is:

"That the cost of all local service mains hereafter installed in the city of Glendale including all service mains not over four inches in diameter and also where a distribution main larger than four inches in diameter is used also for a service main, a part of the cost of such distribution main equal to the cost of a four inch main in the same location, shall be paid by local assessment on the property served by such mains.

Legal Proceedings

"In the carrying out of this policy it is going to be necessary in a large majority of cases to take legal proceedings under one of the local improvement acts whereby the cost of these mains can be assessed to the property benefited thereby. In most instances it will be advisable to proceed under one of the bonding provisions as there will always be some property holders on every street that will desire to have a bond issued against their property rather than pay the cost of installation at the time. It is desirable that these mains be laid by the city for the principal reason that the water department is well equipped to make such installation at the least cost to the property holders.

"We do not understand that there is any local improvement act under which the city can do this. As the laws now stand, we understand that all such installations will have to be done by contract or at least through the medium of a contractor who might sublet the work to the city.

This would probably work out very well where the pipe is laid in connection with street work. The whole improvement including the pipe might be left to a contractor who would sublet the pipe laying to the city. In a number of instances, however, there will be calls for the installation of service mains either on streets that are already improved or on streets where the property holders are not ready for the street improvement.

Ordinance Proposed

"It would greatly facilitate the carrying out of the city's policy in regard to the laying of service mains if a simple procedure were provided whereby the city could take the contract directly. Section 10 of Article VI of the city charter provides that this may be done. This section reads as follows:

"Section 10—Power to do public work direct: The council shall have the power to provide by ordinance a complete procedure whereby the city may bid on all public work done under the provisions of any local improvement ordinance or resolution. Said ordinance shall provide the procedure whereby the city shall perform such public work for which the city may be the lowest bidder. A revolving fund may be created by bond issue for the purpose of financing the cost of such public work.'

"Inasmuch as this is an urgent matter by reason of the fact that property holders in many instances are having to lay temporary pipes at a considerable expense in order to get immediate service pending the laying of a service main from which their property may be served, I would respectfully recommend that the city attorney be instructed to prepare an ordinance for your consideration in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of the charter, providing that the city may bid on all public work done under the provisions of any local improvement ordinance or resolution or if it seems best prepare an ordinance outlining a complete procedure for the laying of water mains as provided for in section 10 of the charter."

Japan Is Increasing Its Air Equipment

TOKIO—Great ship loads of machinery and various other material for the great fleet which Japan is preparing to build are continually arriving. The newspapers say that while Japan received no submarines, beyond those which arrived last year in the division of spoils from Germany, such are coming in constantly in take-down form, being shipped through Dutch ports in order to avoid the attention of the allied reparations commission and on vessels belonging to the biggest Japanese companies which are under obligations, because of subsidies, to the Japanese government.

Great interest is being taken in a large number of airplanes and one Zeppelin, which Japan is receiving as her share of the German spoils and which are now arriving in considerable numbers. Japan is making strenuous efforts to catch up with other nations in development of her air forces, which are without doubt the weakest part of her defense. In addition to the airplanes received from Germany, she recently bought eighty-three machines from France.

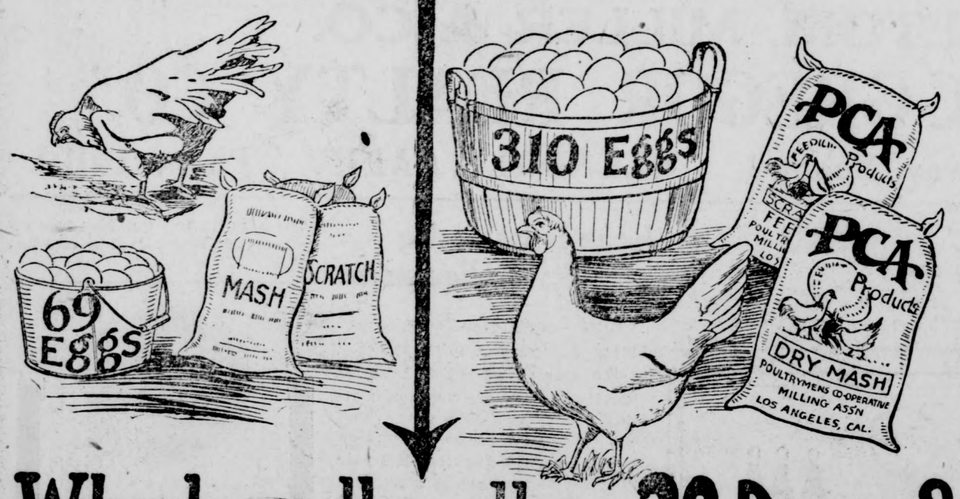
WHICH?



Why lose the other 20 Dozen?

Uncle Sam has counted the hens on the ranches and farms in this country, also the number of eggs that farm-raised hens lay in 12 months' time—it is 69.

Compare this with the returns in eggs, per hen, from the properly fed, bred, and housed hens here in Southern California, where records of 310 eggs per hen per year are an actual fact, established, not merely by one single hen, but by several hens, all with actual trap nest records for every day in the year.

These as well as more than one-half million OTHER HENS in Southern California, are fed each and every day in the year on

'BLACK BEAUTY' FILM FEATURE TONIGHT AT GLENDALE

PICTURE BASED UPON NOTED STORY; VAUDEVILLE BILL AT FIRST SHOW ONLY

Merrylegs never would have been a party to the cutting off of little children's ears and noses, and neither would Black Beauty. Sir Oliver probably would have balked at that if it had come to the point. Ginger was bitter, however, and with little wonder. The high strung, sensitive chestnut mare had suffered almost unendurable torment from the stupidity, the vanity and the brutality of certain human beings. They all liked Squire Gordon, however.

Many millions of readers will remember that scene in the orchard at Birtwick Hall, with Black Beauty and the other horses discussing the conduct of humans. Now, at last the scene, so wonderfully presented on the printed page by Anna Sewell, is to be shown in motion pictures. "Black Beauty," which for more than forty years has preserved its place among the ten most popular books in the world, has been visualized as a Vitagraph special production, and is shown at the Glendale theatre again today and tomorrow.

In addition to Black Beauty's story, which is presented faithfully and completely, there is the "Indoor Story" of Black Beauty's human friends and acquaintances. It is a thrilling drama, written by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester, and is told in scenes which alternate, in point of time and place, with the Black Beauty story scenes.

Vaudeville Program

However, there are other attractions on tonight's program that should interest others. Another excellent vaudeville program comprising five amateur acts and professional tryouts is scheduled for the first show. "High and Dizzy," a Harold Lloyd comedy keeps the audience happy and Madame Clement plays the "Sextette from Lucia" on the southland's greatest organ.

Save your coupons clipped from the Glendale Evening News for performances the first of the week.

Conscience As Guide In Picking Beach Suit

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—"Let your conscience be your guide," appears to be the slogan governing bathing suit styles at Venice and other nearby beaches.

The shape, color and size of the beach costumes are left to the maids who wear them. Short, one-piece suits in all colors, without stockings, predominate.

Many tourists are terribly shocked at what they see on the beaches here—but they stick around.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The new state prohibition enforcement law has developed a new regulation for bathers at Long Beach. It is this: "No hip pockets will be allowed on bathing suits, either for men or women."

Police Captain Barriscale, in charge at Long Beach, said one piece suits would not be permitted for either men or women. The latter's skirts must extend to within an inch of the knee. Stockings are not necessary.

At Coney Island it was stated that the anti-one-piece regulations would be strictly enforced.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 20.—The local police are determined this year to suppress radicalism—in bathing suits.

"One-piece costumes will not be permitted and women bathers must wear stockings. The stockings must extend above the knee and overlap the lower extremity of the bathing suit," it was explained at Police Chief Miller's office. "The skirt must also be a real skirt, not a mere ruffle."

CHICAGO, May 20.—Two good reasons for wearing a 1921 model bathing suit will be displayed by women who visit Chicago's beaches this year.

Form-fitting, one-piece bathing suits will be shown, sold and worn, investigation showed. Stockings will be the exception, rather than the rule.

Movies of bathing girls have just about standardized the demand for suits, according to leading dealers here, and there isn't much demand except for the one piece, "tank" outfits.

Believe Missing Man Killed By Smugglers

SAN DIEGO, May 20.—Local police today believe that the man brutally murdered in Spring Valley, near here, April 28, was M. A. Morey of Maysville, N. Y. His description tallies perfectly with the victim. Morey has been missing for a month, his wife states.

The police believe the murder was the outgrowth of border liquor running and that the victim "knew too much" about the operations of a gang of smugglers.

La Crescenta Notes

H. S. Bissell and S. Young were among the La Crescenta representatives at the La Canada demonstration by the Farm Bureau at the Bert Kirst ranch last Monday. E. Blanchard gave an interesting talk on the general summer problems of deciduous orchards. He also gave a demonstration of summer thinning of trees.

The La Crescenta Woman's club is fitting up a room at the Monte Vista lodge in Sunland. This will be a rest home for indigent children and will be open the first of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rienhardt are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little son. Master Rienhardt has the distinction of being the first child born in Montrose.

With the total of 1.69 inches of rain for May, the total rainfall for La Crescenta this season is 21 inches, according to H. S. Bissell of "Hi-Up" ranch.

C. L. Meade, who has been quite ill, is improving slowly.

The firm of Collins & Gillingham will open a lumber yard and planing mill at Montrose at once. They have purchased a number of acres on Honolulu avenue between Ocean View and Rosemont and will immediately begin the erection of five bungalows which will be placed on the market when completed.

A. W. Brown reports the sale of 26 one-half and one-fourth acre lots in the new tract which is located at the end of the car-line. Improvements are under way and many new homes being built. Among the purchasers are Mrs. A. Gaust, C. A. Dalton, E. Montgomery, S. N. Wrenn, Miss A. Welch, Mrs. A. Rousee, N. Dumphy, one acre for Presbyterian church, Helen B. Brown, T. L. Viven, Bernice Burlingame and Mrs. E. Garner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin returned from San Francisco last Monday. While in the north they visited Stanford university and many points of interest. Mr. Irwin reports his mother much improved.

Mrs. E. Goner and son, Allan, of Richmond, Virginia, who have been guests at the La Crescenta hotel for the winter, left for Santa Barbara Tuesday.

The Tuesday Bridge club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. S. Conlin last Tuesday evening at her home on Mayfield avenue. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Richard Dewey of La Canada and Miss Delia Bastable of Los Angeles. The highest scores of the club were made by Mrs. C. E. Culberson and Dr. E. N. Nettleton. Miss Bastable was given the guest trophy. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Culberson.

Rev. E. Kelso, assisted by Rev. C. Davenport, will conduct the services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Officers elected for the coming year for the Parent-Teachers' association Wednesday are: President, Mrs. S. Young; first vice-president, Mrs. G. Peck; second vice-president, Mrs. C. Emerson; recording secretary, Mrs. E. Angier; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Czerniski; treasurer, Mrs. E. Collins. Arrangements for the annual school picnic at Brookside park, June 17, were made. England Will Object To Plans Of France

PARIS, May 20.—Great Britain has warned France that she will seriously object to French occupation of the Ruhr Valley in event Germany invades Upper Silesia, it was learned today.

The French foreign office replied that it could make no promises.

The British charge d'affaires here yesterday asked whether France had any intention of occupying the Ruhr in case the Germans entered Upper Silesia to proceed against the Polish insurgents there.

Great Britain, it was said, would seriously object to any such action by France.

The foreign office replied that France would be unable to ignore any contingency that might require occupation of the Ruhr. It was unable to make any promises, it said.

Urges U. S. Industry Be Ready For Warfare

By HAROLD D. JACOBS
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—American industry should be maintained in the same degree of preparedness for war as the army and navy, according to Bernard M. Baruch.

The modern application of George Washington's admonition—"in time of peace prepare for war"—is explained by Baruch in his book, "American Industry in the War," which is in effect a report of the War Industries Board, of which he was chairman. Baruch makes these suggestions:

A peace-time skeletonized organization along the same lines as the War Industries Board should be established to provide congress with accurate and complete information regarding all industries, and to form the nucleus of a new board in case of another war.

The government should encourage and assist in development of the production of certain essential materials, used both in war and peace, which have been virtual monopolies in other countries in the past.

Manufacturers should be prevailed upon to maintain under government supervision the skeleton organizations in certain departments through which rapid manufacture of munitions and war materials could be developed.

"There should be established a peace-time-skeleton organization following the lines of the War Industries Board," Baruch says.

"It should be headed by a chairman who should have associated with him the chiefs of the centralized purchasing bureaus of the army, of the navy, and of any other government department which might be called upon to make large purchases in case of war. To function under the several principal divisions there should be selected about 50 chiefs of commodity sections. Each chief of a commodity section would name a committee to represent the industry under his charge. The committees of the different industries could meet separately as occasion required. The main organization should meet in general conference at least once a year.

"During the war the country was constantly threatened with a shortage in available supply of nitrogen, manganese, chrome, tungsten, dyestuffs, coal-tar derivatives, and several other essential materials. These materials had always been imported. The government should devise some system for protecting and stimulating their internal production.

"Under the supervision of the proper departments of the government, certain war industries should be encouraged to maintain skeleton organizations through which they could develop the rapid manufacture of guns, munitions, airplanes, and other direct military equipment. This might be done in some cases through government purchases of factories, in others through the placing of sufficient orders to permit the owners to keep the plants in existence.

"These measures are suggested as direct methods of insuring against some of the heavy losses and unfortunate delays which the country experienced in the process of converting its industries from a peace to a war basis. They involve very small current expenditures, but are capable of being instruments for saving many millions of dollars in an emergency."

A new electrolytic process is expected to remove the titanium that prevents the economical working of certain Swedish and Norwegian iron ores and from them and to convert the former metal into a useful paint basis.

BIG LUMBER DEALER WON COMPLETELY BY SOUTHLAND

S. L. SPURRIER OF OKLAHOMA SEEKS OPPORTUNITIES IN VICINITY OF GLENDALE

S. L. Spurrier, a big wholesale lumber dealer of Guthrie, Okla., who was a director of the Oklahoma State bank of Guthrie at the time A. R. Eastman of this city was president of that institution, enjoyed the week-end here with his former financial associate at the Eastman home, 709 North Louise street.

Although he had made the trip by motorcar to California several seasons, it has been only in this last visit that Mr. Spurrier thoroughly convinced himself that southern California offers better opportunities for the investor and business man than any other section of the country in which he has traveled recently.

According to Mr. Eastman, Mrs. Spurrier had been trying for some time to get her husband to realize what California offered as she is thoroughly in love with this section of the country.

Says Opportunities Here

In his travels this last year, however, Mr. Spurrier talked with hundreds of business men from California to Florida and it was their consensus of opinion that will bring him here as a permanent resident. Practically all were agreed that southern California was the best year 'round, in season and out of season place in which to live.

"I concluded that it wasn't necessary for me to look any farther for larger opportunities," Mr. Spurrier confided to Mr. Eastman, which indeed sounds encouraging to newcomers and like words of wisdom to those who have resided here for some time.

"All of these wealthy men with whom I talked," concluded the visitor in his chat with the local banker, "figure on making the vicinity of Los Angeles their home in the future, which augurs well for the real estate dealer and the builder as well as business in general."

U. S. Merchants Are Winning China Trade

WASHINGTON—Americans are winning in the three-cornered struggle between the United States, Japan and Great Britain for the great trade marts of China, J. W. Sanger, U. S. Trade Commissioner, returned from the Orient, declared today in an interview with the United Press.

Sanger visited the Philippines, Japan and Continental Asia for the purpose of reporting to the Department of Commerce on the condition of American trade in the Far East. A special feature of his mission was to determine whether American commercial supremacy in the Orient could be hastened through Asia-wide advertisements of our wares.

"China and Japan are comparable only by contrast," said Sanger. "Japan has a good railroad system, banking organization, and a powerful newspaper press. The transition from agricultural to an industrial nation is complete. Japanese manufactured goods compete with our products in her home market and in China. Still American goods are being sold in Japan and the market can be increased.

"Japanese manufacturers spend millions in advertisements in the 800 native newspapers. The circulation of some of these papers is tremendous and in all respects the leading dailies are crack, up-to-date journals, nearly 90 per cent of the Japanese people can and do read the newspapers.

"As yet Americans have not extensively used newspaper advertisements to create demand for their goods. While perhaps not as responsive to advertisement as buyers in the United States, the Japanese are largely influenced by properly designed advertisement. British trading firms in Japan are more conservative than the native merchants in grasping this aid to business and will consequently suffer from American adoption of advertisement selling campaigns."

"The situation in China is different. American business is growing there by leaps and bounds. The principal hindrance is lack of transport. Still, in my opinion, we are besting our British rivals. Considering that we buy much less of China's great raw products than Japan, we are holding our own against that country in the sale of manufactured goods."

May Inscribe Flags, New Measure Provides

BOSTON—American flags owned and displayed by American Legion posts may be suitably inscribed with the names of battles and other inscriptions emblematic of the soldiers' valorous deeds in France as the result of a bill signed by Governor Cox. The state anti-abuse-of-the-flag laws prohibit the marking or use of Old Glory for advertising purposes. Only the flags of the Grand Army and Spanish war units were permitted to be inscribed. The new law adds the American Legion to the two exempted groups.

BOLSHEVISM IS NOT GERMAN MENACE, SAYS WRITER

COUNTRY DOES NOT RUN ANY DANGER OF BEING RED; OFFICIALS CONTROL

By CARL D. GROAT
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN—That Bolshevism has no chance to strangle Germany is the conclusion of neutral observers from the results of the latest red outburst in mid-Germany and elsewhere.

Despite the time-worn cry of various official sources that Germany runs the danger of going red—an obvious attempt to influence the outside world—the course of the latest "revolution" shows that Bolshevism or communism is a weak thing in Germany.

The mid-German uprising was the first big attempt of the reds to enforce their regime in Germany since the split of the independent socialist party at Kalls last fall. At that time, the ultra-radicals went into the communist camp, with a frank declaration of adherence to Moscow's principles of terrorism and "action."

These principles were given a good tryout here in March and the result is—taken from a world standpoint—negligible as far as showing any tendency toward actual red control in Germany is concerned.

Government Easily Controls

The action was ill-conceived and badly executed. The government easily controlled the situation, mainly with police troops, although it did use some regulars toward the last. The suspicion exists—and this is strengthened by my personal observations in mid-Germany—that the government proceeded slowly, so as not to let the outside world picture its task as too simple. And, the police officers everywhere made propaganda for more arms. They constantly referred to the entente as "swine" for leaving them so disarmed. But it was notable that everywhere they made a quick clean-up with small casualties, except at Eisleben, where resistance lasted rather longer and involved some sharp fighting.

The red movement was a complete failure, and Moscow has been heaping abuse upon the heads of the red leaders and their followers in Germany ever since the fiasco.

The real truth of the situation—confirming previous statements of this correspondent—is that communism in Germany, while having many followers, is really a weak, unorganized thing, to which the bulk of the German workers are opposed.

The workers have a considerable amount of concealed weapons, but this number is probably exaggerated for propaganda purposes. I saw a house searching in a town outside Mansfeld. This developed only about a dozen rifles, some of them of doubtful age and value.

Prussian Military Spirit

And, the "siege" of Mansfeld was about as tame an affair as one could imagine. A party of American correspondents trailed the victorious army into Mansfeld. Several companies of police, all armed with rifles and grenades, with trucks armed with machine guns, were in the procession. The police are mostly noncoms. They know war, and like it. They outmatch the regulars. Their treatment of prisoners is far from gentle. The press has been raising a howl that they have shot down men virtually in cold blood when there was no occasion for it.

My personal experience with them is that they are imbued with the old Prussian military spirit, full of bluster, mean to the point of insult, but cringing when faced by courageous opposition.

Italy Seeking Coal And Freedom In U. S.

NEW YORK—America's hydraulic-electric plants are to serve as a model for Italy's gigantic undertaking of the electrification of her state railways.

For the purpose of studying the principal American installations as a basis for the Italian project a commission of leading Italian technicians are now traveling in the United States.

Italy's decision to electrify her railways and all industrial plants possible, is the result of the first great economic lesson learned by Italy during the war.

As absolutely no coal exists in Italy, she is at the present time the slave of whatever foreign country can provide her with coal. Similarly any country, such as France, England or Germany, that cared to cut off Italy's coal supply could reduce her to subjection in a few weeks without firing a single gun. The effect on Italy's finances of being obliged to buy coal abroad is equally disastrous, especially on her exchange. Hence Italy's decision to establish at the earliest moment possible her economic independence by the transformation of her almost unlimited hydraulic possibilities into electrical energy.

The first project for the electrification of the state railways provides for six thousand kilometers. As a matter of fact the great bulk of the railways in northern Italy are already electrified, and the carrying out of the above program practically places the entire state system beyond the menace of any foreign coal power.

The mission which will study the American hydraulic installations and which will spend several months here is composed of Engineering Professor Guido Semenza of Milan as chief of the mission; Engineering Professor Gian Giacomo Ponti of Milan; Marchese Ferdinando Cusani Confalonieri, of Milan; Engineer Commendatore Cesare Scarelli, colonel of engineers and director of transportation of the Italian General Staff; Engineer Commendatore Curzio de Regibus, representing the Italian state railways.

The principal electrical plants in the United States will be visited and studied.

Reception Is Planned New M. E. Members

Suggests Art Cure Be Tried In Jails

CHICAGO—A jail should be a "thing of beauty," if not a "joy forever," in the opinion of Nicholas K. Roerich, Russian painter, whose exhibit now hangs in the art gallery.

Roerich believes that if criminals and other "jail birds" look at real art day after day, they will forget their evil ways and become assets to society.

"Jails should be filled with beautiful paintings and objects of art," he said. "If the culture of the spirit is to win, beauty must invade new regions, regions where now there is only ugliness."

Members of the county board of commissioners, who are considering a new jail for Cook county, doubted whether appropriations will be available to decorate the interior of the bastile with "high art."

"It is possible that the inmates will be forced to worry around with white-washed and painted walls for a time," said one official.

Civic organizations have attacked the present county prison as "a disgrace to civilization."

Propose Bond Issue to $26,000 to Protect City Owned Material

Petitions requesting the Board of City Trustees to submit a bond issue for $26,000 for the purpose of securing land and buildings to care for city materials will be prepared by Hartley Shaw, city attorney, and placed in circulation, it was decided at the meeting of the board last night. It is proposed, if the necessary signatures are secured, to place the proposition on the ballot at the coming municipal election.

Action was taken by the board last night upon the following recommendation from T. W. Watson, city manager:

"In regard to the proposition to issue $26,000 of municipal bonds for the purpose of acquiring land and constructing and completing thereon municipal buildings for the purpose of storing material, supplies, vehicles and equipment owned by the city of Glendale that did not receive the necessary two-thirds majority at the election held on March 29.

"It is our opinion that this matter did not receive full consideration by the voters at that time. Had the people of the city realized the need of these improvements they would no doubt have authorized the issuance of these bonds and we believe it would be in the public interest to have this proposition again submitted on the ballot at the coming municipal election. We understand that this can be done by your board upon receipt of petition therefor signed by 15 per cent or more of the last vote cast for governor of the state. We would therefore recommend that the city attorney prepare petitions requesting your board to place this proposition on the ballot in the coming municipal election and that we be authorized to secure the necessary signatures thereto. We also request permission to prepare and publish a statement setting forth in detail the need for this expenditure and the items for which the money will be expended."

FRANK L. PACKARD, AUTHOR OF 'MIRACLE MAN,' WRITES STORY, VITAL TOPIC

A motion picture that should thrill not only because of its absorbing story, but because of its powerful heart appeal, is "The White Moll," in which the famous Pearl White is to be starred—her first big production—by William Fox at the Palace Grand Theatre today only. The story is from the pen of Frank L. Packard, famous author of "The Miracle Man," which has made history in the film world; and E. Lloyd Sheldon wrote the scenario. "The White Moll" treats of a vital subject that should appeal to everyone. The story centers around Rhoda, a reformed crook, who has seen the light, and who has been commissioned by a millionaire to help reform the unfortunates of the underworld. As a settlement worker she invades the dives of crooks and gangsters, and through her charitable work and "square dealing" she has come to be known as the White Moll.

The story is thrillingly screened, according to report, aand is issued by Fox as a special production.

Fatty Arbuckle in a brand new edition of "His Wedding Night" will provide the spice while "Wang" will be the overture by the orchestra.

"Ducks and Drakes," a jazzy comedy with Bebe Daniels imprisoned by four determined men should draw record throngs tomorrow. "The Skipper's Treasure Garden" is the third of a Toonerville Trolley series.

George Melford's "The Faith Healer," comes to the Palace Grand on Sunday and Monday.

Charge to Collect Waste Matter to Be Made by City, Plan

If an ordinance to be prepared by Hartley Shaw, city attorney, on instructions of the Board of City Trustees is adopted, as it probably will be, commencing July 1 a charge will be made by the city for collecting garbage and waste matter.

T. W. Watson, city manager, submitted the following report on the matter at the meeting of the Board of City Trustees last night:

"We respectfully submit the following as supplemental to our report of May 5 in regard to gathering of garbage and waste matter:

"In our report of May 5, we recommended that a charge be made for the collection of garbage and waste matter during the first six months of the ensuing fiscal year, also that a charge be made for gathering papers and rubbish in the business district, giving as a reason therefor the fact that the cost of this service together with payments that will be required for the purchase of equipment therefor will amount to approximately $966.25 per month during that period and that this service must be rendered a number of months in advance of the receipt of taxes to cover the cost thereof.

"In connection we find that the cities of Santa Barbara, Redlands, Riverside and Long Beach all make a regular charge for this service. The only figure we have as to the charge is from Redlands, the charge there being 50 cents per month and this is the amount formerly charged by the city of Glendale for this service.

"We estimate that a charge of 33 1-3 cents per month if paid by all who are now receiving this service would cover the cost of gathering garbage and waste matter and that a charge of 25 cents per month for gathering the contents of a container of twenty-five gallon capacity and a charge of 50 cents per month for gathering the contents of a container of fifty-gallon capacity would cover the cost of gathering waste papers and rubbish in the business district.

"We would therefore respectfully recommend that charges for gathering garbage, waste matter and rubbish be made and collected as above stated, these charges to be payable quarterly in advance commencing on July 1, 1921. Inasmuch as this matter will require immediate action in order that the same may be established by the first of July, should your board decide upon the above policy, I have requested city attorney to prepare an ordinance in accordance with the above recommendation for your consideration this evening."

Hungary Will Never Beg, Asserts Official

BY MAJOR E. J. SWIFT
Written for the United Press

BUDAPEST—"Hungary will never become a beggar among nations, as have some countries."

This was the declaration of Admiral Horthy, president-governor of Hungary, in an interview. "We have never asked for charity and never will," the admiral continued. "Nevertheless, we shall remember forever that when two revolutions and an invasion had left us prostrate and when our children were starving and dying from cold, America came to our assistance. What no diplomacy could have done this evidence of disinterested good will has done, and for the kindness shown our children, Hungary will bless America forever."

I saw Admiral Horthy in his rooms in the old palace of Franz Josef. The palace itself is one of the most famous in Europe. Although everything about the palace has been much simplified, the governor-president's rooms retain the old furniture and the old grandeur, and they are still watched over by guardsmen in uniforms of crimson and gold.

The governor-president has a cordial manner. He is very short and stocky, with piercing black eyes, a big nose, a belligerent chin, and rather thin lips. Like everyone in the Hungarian government, he is an optimist regarding the Hungarian situation. In this the attitude of the Hungarians differ greatly from that of the Austrians. The latter are obviously discouraged and given over to the psychology of defeat. The Hungarians believe absolutely in the rehabilitation of their country, and although they constantly bemoan the territory which they have lost to Czecho-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia and Rumania, they believe that they will win it back.

"The financial situation in Hungary is showing marked improvement," said Horthy. "The krone is now 390 to the dollar, which means that its market value is rising with remarkable rapidity when compared to the valuta of the surrounding countries."

The rise in the value of the krone will result, Admiral Horthy thinks, in an alleviation of the food shortage in Budapest, which has been serious, owing to the refusal of the peasants to exchange good food for worthless money. In Hungary the peasants at present constitute the strongest party, and the confiscatory measures in vogue in Austria are impossible here. The collapse of industry in Budapest due to the coal shortage, has created the phenomenon of starvation in a city which is the center of one of the richest agricultural districts in the world. How widespread the food shortage in Budapest has been indicated by the figures of the American relief association, showing that 77 per cent of school children examined were undernourished. These figures are much better than those for Vienna, where 90 per cent of school children fell into the undernourished class, but they are startlingly bad, nevertheless.

J. A. Newton Goes East To Attend Conference

J. A. Newton of the J. A. Newton Electric company, 629-633 East Broadway, and member of the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, is now at Winona Lake, Ind., where he is attending the Presbyterians' general assembly. After the church sessions conclude, he will go further east to New York and other points on a business mission.

The trip being taken by Mr. Newton will take about five weeks' time and he will return home just in time to be active in the Christian Endeavor state convention here June 25 to 29. Mrs. Newton, who remains in Glendale, will be kept more than busy supervising the construction of the family's new home at 521 North Jackson street.

City Health Office Is Being Organized

Dr. J. E. Eckles, city health officer, is organizing his department into a unit which he hopes will work for efficiency. Miss Helen McAlonon has been added to the staff as public nurse and Paul Wells, deputy health officer, who has had offices in police headquarters, has moved to Dr. Eckles' office. H. W. Hollenbeck, sanitary inspector, however, will remain at the city hall for the present.

All who have health matters to report should phone Dr. Eckles' office, while those wishing sanitary inspections should call for Mr. Hollenbeck at Glendale 1300.

Rogues Gallery For Dry Law Violators?

EL PASO—J. A. Toomye, acting supervisor of prohibition for the border district, has received a large number of letters from sheriffs in Arizona, New Mexico and Texas urging the adoption of a Bertilion system and the establishment of an international rogues gallery for liquor law violators.

Argument is made that under the present system officers in the different jurisdictions have no means of identifying the habitual offenders. Cases are cited where prisoners have been found to be under indictment and out on bond in as many as three different jurisdictions.

Supervisor Toomey announced recently he would transmit the sheriffs' requests to Washington.

Woman Votes Against Desires Of Husband

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. — Mrs. Bessie Bryant is willing to sacrifice matrimony for political independence it was shown recently when she filed a cross complaint to her husband's suit for divorce.

Mrs. Bryant's bill says she did not promise the preacher to vote the way her husband, William E. Bryant votes, and that she informed her husband so on November 2.

Thereupon, she charges, he told her if she went to the polls and did not vote as he told her she would find the house locked on her return, with her trunk on the front porch ready for a long journey.

She went, she voted and returned to find he had carried out his threat, she says.

Three-Year-Old Boy In Bertillion Process

DENVER—Although he is only three years of age, Paul Everett Collins has been "mugged" by the custodian of the Rogue's Gallery at police headquarters and his fingerprint record taken under the Bertillion system.

But Paul is not a criminal. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Collins, who recently adopted the child, brought him to the city hall and asked that the records be made as a precautionary measure in case Paul is ever kidnaped. The foster parents said they feared someone might attempt to take the boy away from them and had the records filed at the county recorder's office.

Sinn Fein Has Hard Task Securing Arms

LONDON—One by one the main supports of the Sinn Fein campaign in Ireland are being swept away by the government forces.

For a long time the Sinn Feiners found it comparatively easy to smuggle war equipment into the country, but the gradual acquirement of control of all ports and systematic searching of ships has made it increasingly difficult to obtain fresh supplies. Even the smuggling out of the country of wanted men, dispatches and anti-British propaganda has been reduced to a minimum.

The task of defeating Sinn Feiners in this manner is in the hands of the Auxiliary Division of the R. I. C. The majority of its members are ex-naval and their experience is so varied that between them they could muster crews to navigate any craft from a submarine to a super-dreadnought. Searching squads in charge of officers inspect vessels. A merchant ship having picked up her pilot proceeds into harbor and is boarded by customs officials. On arrival in dock she is met by the Auxiliaries' searching squad.

Most of the firearms and explosives smuggled into Ireland are packed in cases labeled as common merchandise.

Passengers disembarking by tender from the American liners as well as passengers aboard the mail boats from Kingstown to Holyhead, are scrutinized. All along the coast yachts, vessels of every type are examined. Even small fishing boats off unfrequented villages by the sea do not escape search.

These activities are causing great embarrassment to the Sinn Fein leaders, who are finding it na mean task to obtain a steady flow of munitions necessary to carry on their campaign.

U. S. Beats British Filming Queen Mary

LONDON—The life story of "Mary Queen of Scots," is being filmed here by an American firm.

This has given rise to much talk because a little while ago it was announced that a British firm would produce the film version of this subject. However, the American firm is now advertising for a girl who bears a facial resemblance to the Queen to play the name part.

In order to straighten out the matter in the minds of the public. Walter West, who originally intended to produce such a film, wrote to the London "Daily Mail:"

"Those whose business it is to find the money necessary for the production of British films were convinced that no one wanted to see British history on the screen and that costume plays were a failure. I spent three years trying to bring them 'round to my way of thinking, with the result that an American firm has launched forth on the film and it is now nearing completion.'

Potters' field in New York City has reached its capacity. There are but two more plots to be filled.

Registrations Heavy For Election June 28; May 28 Is Final Day

Registrations for the coming city election to be held on June 28 are reported heavy.

It is believed that fifty or more will register each day until May 28 when the books will be closed.

Efforts are being made by the various interests to have every available voter cast his or her ballot in what promises to be the warmest campaign even seen in this city.

It is needless to impress upon residents of Glendale the necessity for every citizen exercising their rights as voters.

For those who have not registered as yet, you can do so between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce, 115 West Broadway, or with Mrs. May E. Myton, 104 South Glendale avenue, and between 5 and 9 p. m. at Roberts & Echols' Drug Store or at the branch library at the old Tropico city hall, corner of Brand boulevard and Los Feliz Road.

ORDINANCE NO. 441

AN ORDINANCE GRANTING TO THE GLENDALE & MONTROSE RAILWAY COMPANY, A CORPORATION, THE RIGHT TO CONSTRUCT, MAINTAIN AND OPERATE A RAILWAY, USING ELECTRICITY OR OTHER MOTIVE POWER EXCEPT STEAM, AS PROVIDED IN THIS FRANCHISE OVER AND ACROSS CERTAIN STREETS IN THE CITY OF GLENDALE.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That the right, privilege and franchise is hereby granted to the Glendale & Montrose Railway Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate for a period of Forty-three (43) years, from November 4th, 1920, a street railway, using electricity or other motive power except steam over along and across those portions of the railway line as now constructed, and operated, by the Glendale & Montrose Railway Company, a corporation, over and across the public streets in the City of Glendale, said line being generally described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at the intersection of Brand Boulevard and Broadway; thence Easterly along Broadway to the intersection of Broadway and Glendale Avenue; thence Northerly along and across Glendale Avenue, Verdugo Road, and Canada Boulevard; thence to, along and across Verdugo Canyon Road and Ocean View Boulevard to the Northerly city limits; and also commencing at the intersection of Glendale Avenue and Wilson Avenue; thence Easterly along Wilson Avenue, Eagle Rock Road and Broadway, to the Easterly city limits; together with the right to construct curves, switches and spur tracks into private property; also connections at street intersections, and all other appliances, property, structures and attachments that may be necessary or proper, for the purpose of operating said road and enabling it to be as effective as the best railway operated by electricity or other motive power, except steam; provided, however, that no spur track into private property shall be built within One Thousand (1000) feet of any spur track already constructed under said franchise, without first securing the proper consent of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale.

Section 2. That the terms and conditions upon which said franchise is hereby granted, are the following, to-wit:

1st. That the railway to be constructed and operated under said franchise shall be used for the transportation of passengers, baggage, United States mail, express matter, and such other commodities as can be conveniently handled by an electric railway, provided that cars other than closed ones, of a neat and attractive design, shall only be conveyed over said road between the hours of nine o'clock p. m. of each day and six o'clock a. m. of the following day; except hauling such material as is used in the construction and reconstruction of such railways.

2nd. That said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall use good material in the construction of said road, and said road shall be built in a good workmanlike manner, and that said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall, at its or their own cost and expense, oil and re-oil, pave or macadamize the said road between the rails, between the tracks and for two (2) feet on each side thereof, with the same material used by the City, and under the same specifications and in the same manner as upon the streets over which said roads are respectively, and shall keep the same constantly so paved or macadamized and in repair flush with said streets, and provided with suitable crossings, and shall make the roadbed conform at all times to the established grade of said streets; provided, however, that where any of the above named streets have been graded or otherwise improved prior to the granting of said franchise, said roadbed and rails shall conform to and be flush with the surface of said graded or otherwise improved street or streets, whether such surface be above or below the official grade of said street or streets, and on all other street or streets, the said roadbed and rails shall conform to such official grade as aforesaid.

In case the said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall fail to comply with the instructions given for said repairs for ten days after service of notice thereof upon the superintendent or manager of said railway, then the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale may, with suitable assistance, enter upon said railway, or any portion thereof, and do the work, and furnish the proper material, and keep an itemized account of the cost thereof, which said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, by the acceptance of this franchise, agrees to pay immediately to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale upon the presentation of the account to the superintendent or manager of said railway.

Provided further, that cars shall be run over the road constructed under said franchise every day, unless prevented by the elements, riots, strikes or unavoidable causes; provided, also, that cars shall be run over and upon said road at intervals of not more than one (1) hour from seven (7) o'clock a. m. until ten (10) o'clock p. m. of each day, and as much oftener as may be necessary to properly accommodate all persons who apply for transportation over said road, except in times of extraordinary and unforeseen amounts of travels, and provided that the Board of Trustees may authorize a less number of trips if the amount of travel does not warrant the above number of trips, and provided further, that said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company, and its assigns shall have the right to excavate and remove portions of said streets necessary to properly construct said road, and to erect needful apparatus, boilers, engines and other appliances to properly equip and run said road; provided further, that the City of Glendale in granting said franchise, expressly reserves the right to pave, macadamize, renew or sewer any of said streets, or to lay gas, water or other pipes therein, said work to be done so as to injure said road as little as possible.

It is further provided that said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company, and its assigns, shall construct all necessary fumes and culverts for the free passage of water under the tracks of said Railway whenever and wherever necessary, and that all of such flumes and culverts shall be construced in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the City Engineer and wherever required by said City of Glendale.

3rd. That the said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall and will, at all times upon and after the completion of said road, during the operation of the same, and without extra charge, issue and receive from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for one continuous passage over and upon any and every other line and lines or any other road or roads to any points within the said City, which said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in; and provided, as a further condition, that said grantee, and its assigns, shall and will at all times as aforesaid, issue or cause to be issued to said passengers without extra charge, a similar transfer from any and every line or lines which said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in, within said City of Glendale, as aforesaid, to, over and upon the road operated and maintained under said franchise within the city limits of the City of Glendale; and provided further, that such transfers shall be given and received as above provided over and upon all such roads within the city limits of the City of Glendale, whether operated under a franchise granted by said City, or over and upon private right of ways owned or occupied by said roads within the City limits of the City of Glendale.

4th. That the rates of fare to be charged by the grantee shall not exceed the rates fixed by the Body, Board or Commission having authority to fix such rates.

The said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall carry free on said cars, the City Marshall, or Chief of Police and deputies, and all regular police officers and firemen of said city, when on duty and letter carriers, subject at all times to the rules of the road.

5th. That the said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company and its assigns, shall during the life of the said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent of the gross annual receipts of said Glendale & Montrose Railway Company, and its assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise. No percentage shall be paid for the first five years succeeding the date of the franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually, and said franchise is to be forfeited by a failure to make the payments provided for, and it shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise, and its assigns, to file with the City Clerk of the City of Glendale at the expiration of six years from the date of granting said franchise, and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement verified by the oath of the said grantee, or its assigns or by the oath of the manager or presiding officer of said grantee, or its assigns, showing the total gross receipts and gross earnings collected or received by the said grantee, or its assigns, during the preceding twelve months, and within ten days after the time for filing such statement it shall be the duty of said grantee, or its assigns, to pay to the City Treasurer of the said City of Glendale, the aggregate sum of said percentage upon the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise.

7th. That all poles used in the construction and operation of said electric road, shall be placed within the curb line of the streets herein designated as officially established by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, and the outer edge of the poles shall in all cases be set as near the inner edge of the curb as practicable, when not otherwise directed by said Board of Trustees, and the wires suspended from said poles, shall not at any point be less than twenty-two (22) feet above the top of the rail. All poles shall be of tubular steel or of suitable wood, of a size and kind such as are ordinarily used for similar purposes in the State of California, and shall at all times be kept from rust and painted in a uniform color; that wherever said railway is double tracked, then the tracks shall be placed thirteen (13) feet from the center line to center line, and in case of a single track shall be located as directed by the Board of City Trustees of the City of Glendale.

Section 3. That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise, after thirty days' notice given by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, shall thereupon immediately, ipso facto, effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee, or its assigns, from further use of the streets of said City, under said franchise, and said grantee or its assigns, shall thereupon and immediately, surrender all rights in and to the same, and the said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Section 4. Why Chicago Is Wild; Inherited, Poet Finds

CHICAGO—If Chicago is wild, it's inherited.

Louis Untermeyer, American poet and critic found that the city was based on "wild things."

"A Hyde Park woman told me Chicago gets its name from the Indian River Shee-caw-go—that means the River of the Wild Onion," said Untermeyer.

"I was assured by an attorney the Indian word for Chicago River means the River of the Wild Asparagus."

Makes Report Upon All Brand Crossings

T. W. Watson, city manager, at the meeting of the board of city trustees last night filed a report on the status of all Brand boulevard crossings within the city limits, as follows:

"Complying with our request, the city engineer has investigated the status of all Brand boulevard crossings within the city of Glendale and we are in receipt of his report, as follows:

"Doran street crossing and all through streets south to and including Colorado street are dedicated crossings.

"Elk avenue is private right of way with easement to the city for street purposes only.

"Lomita avenue is private right of way with no easement.

"Chestnut street is private right of way with easement to the city for street purposes.

"Maple street, Windsor Road, Garfield avenue and Acacia avenue are private right of ways without easements.

Park avenue is a dedicated street crossing.

"Palmer avenue is private right of way without easement.

"Cypress avenue and Los Feliz road are dedicated street crossings.

"Laurel street, Eulalia street and Cerritos avenue are private right of ways without easements, although Cerritos avenue is used for a crossing.

"San Fernando road is a dedicated street.

"As to Gardena avenue the right of way was granted with a reservation on the part of the first party to lay out streets across the right of way and the second party agrees to make proper crossings.

"It appears that the grades have been established on Brand boulevard along both sides of the railroad right of way but that south of Colorado street grades have not been officially established at the street crossings crossing the railroad right of way."

After a discussion the city engineer was instructed to draft an ordinance establishing a grade on crossings on Brand to conform with the highway.

Harold Lloyd's Comedy Is Given Preview Here

"I DO."
Laugh? Yes!
Howl? Sure!
Scream? You bet!

It was Harold Lloyd's newest comedy which was previewed at The Glendale Theatre last night that proved the sensation of the year.

Producers, audience and all agreed that "I Do" is the funniest film ever made.

The humor radiates about Harold's experience with two tots whom he takes home for the night. "Blinky Ben" H. M. Walker who titled the film was in Mr. Lloyd's personal party which included the comedy king's mother. She laughed until she choked.

Emily Hill, one of the ushers, laughed so much she fell off of the chair on which she was sitting, tears of joy streaming from her eyes and the large audience howled itself hoarse.

iness has the same attractive powers.

Necessity of Life, He Says

"The irresistible march of evolution is constantly converting luxuries into necessities," he continued. "This is a sign of progress. The motion picture producing firms must provide the foodstuffs for the mind. Sometimes when the body is ill-clothed and underfed, the spark of divine life, energizing the mind, impels it to seek the solace or stimulation provided by the motion picture. The despondent will receive encouragement! The ignorant will receive enlightenment! The humble will travel amid the world's most fascinating scenes! The small boy will be spurred to be a great, good and lovable hero! The uncultured will learn the ways of refinement! Such is the food-stuffs for the mind to be provided by the Ethical Motion Picture Society of America:"

Universality of Cinema Influence

"The projectorscope speaks a universal language. It is to the eye what music is to the ear, and when the theatre is fully equipped, the two universal languages vibrate together upon the receptive minds of the silent audience.

"What more wonderful medium could be devised to reach the souls of men than this combination of thundering and intrigueing notes from a master pipe organ, with the revelation in motion and color; of the wonders and delights of human-life and of the Creator's handiwork?

"Softened by the illumined splendor of the theatre; the fresh flowers and moving fans; the hungry of soul and mind gaze in rapture as the magic civilizations of the past, active, living, and all in the heights and depths of their color, pass before the eye. The things which have disappeared from the earth thousands of years ago are rebuilt to an intelligent conception. Flashes of present-day life in the most distant lands are thrown upon the screen, and the imagery of the poet and fiction writer, prophesying the future, is shown in all their curiosities.

"All time is possible to this wonderful science! All literature! All philosophies! All spectacles! All emotions!"

Invited to Meetings

After explaining the mechanism of the society, how it is non-sectarian, non-political and constructive he brought his speech to a close with a high compliment to Glendale and invited all of those interested in the work of the society to attend their meetings in Los Angeles every other Thursday night.

In response to a question by Nathan Rigdon as to how the films of today could be bettered, he advised the appointment of a motion picture committee by the Chamber of Commerce, which Mr. Rowley assured him would be acted upon by the board of directors at their next meeting.

Pays Tribute to Glendale

Mr. Sanders, who spoke at a forum luncheon recently, reiterated his remarks about Glendale giving him that grand and glorious feeling and among his witty remarks, he said that in attending the last meeting at the tabernacle he wondered why more did not go forward.

"The reason flashed through my mind, however, 'Why should they seek the kingdom of heaven as long as they can live in Glendale."

In urging the members of the Chamber of Commerce to remember the slogan, "Glendale and Southern California Straight Ahead," he told of the old negro who drove a hack in New Orleans.

A drummer told him that the animal he was driving was an old cavalry horse.

Taking the lines the salesman said: "Attention! Charge!" And the horse and hack made it forty miles an hour through the traffic to the St. Charles hotel.

Arriving there, the hackman picked up two passengers who were in a hurry to make an L. and M. train.

"Attention!" said the negro. "Charge!" he cried and away they dashed through the traffic, past motorcars and down to the station. As they crossed the canal in front of the station, the old colored hackman looked back at his passengers and said:

"You all get ready to jump, for I done forgot that last word with this hoss."

"All of which reminds us not to forget that slogan, 'Straight Ahead,'" said Mr. Sanders.

Urges Strong Support

He also reviewed the success of the Chamber of Commerce in Oklahoma City and Chicago and advised everyone to do everything in his or her power to back up the secretary here in giving lungs to the city in its rapid development.

Mr. Rowland briefly touched upon the co-operative purposes of the building and loan association which he represented, stating that such an organization was a vital factor in the growth of a city. He stated that he was a resident of Glendale, having built a home in Verdugo Woodlands and that L. B. Beach who would be manager of the local office, had purchased property on North Brand boulevard.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower had the last word of the evening in urging all who wished an independent post-office in Glendale to sign the petitions to be forwarded to the postmaster general, as Congressman Walter F. Lineberger has informed the postal committee of the Chamber of Commerce that 2000 signatures of heads of families would be advisable to carry the proposition.

Student Press Body Of South In Session

Dale Wood and George Jordan, popular members of the Glendale high school, are spending today and this evening at the annual spring convention of the Student Press association of Southern California, which is being held at the Polytechnic high school in Los Angeles. Both of these young men are assistant editors of the local school weekly publication, The Explosion, and have been chosen as delegates to serve at the convention.

The delegates were scheduled to arrive at the convention headquarters at noon, when they were to have been the guests of Polytechnic student body of officers in a visit to the various departments of the institution, which is the largest school in Los Angeles.

The regular business session will take place in the auditorium at 4:30 o'clock, during which rules and regulations for the coming year will be made, and other business performed by the delegates. These yearly meetings are conducted similarly to any of the larger conventions and give invaluable experience to the youthful publishers.

At 6 o'clock the delegates will be guests at a banquet to be served in the school cafeteria, after which they will visit the classes of the Polytechnic night school, which is the largest night school in the world. Following this the embryo newspaper magnates will be entertained at an informal dance.

Alumni Day Program Is Being Completed

Interest among local and other Southern California alumni members of the Glendale high school is rapidly increasing concerning the first annual alumni day, which is scheduled to take place on Friday, June 3. The program, which will commence early in the morning and last until late at night, has been carefully arranged by the committee, and that the affair will be a big success is practically a certainty.

Ed Seay, who is president of the Alumni association, is in Glendale almost every day completing the plans and taking care of details. He says that there will be members present who graduated so long ago that they'll have to be shown that the present institution is the same one they attended years ago.

The days' entertainment will include a visit to the various classes, a short business session and musical program, a baby show, a baseball game between the high school and alumni teams, a banquet and, last but not least, a dance in the evening.

Swimming Pool Issue May Go Upon Ballot

On motion of Trustee Lapham the board of city trustees last night instructed Hartley Shaw, city attorney, to render a legal opinion as to whether a proposition to bond the city for $19,000 for aswimming pool and $5000 to pay the remainder on the city's purchase of Kenilworth park may be placed on the ballot at the coming municipal election in such a manner as to be clearly understood by the voters.

Last November the project was on the ballot as a "civic center." The bonds carried, but bonding experts refused, because of the wording of the California laws, to pass the bonds as being legal.

The project was more recently put on the ballot and to conform with the law, was worded in such a manner, according to the belief of the trustees, that the voters were confused and voted down the issue.

So, for the third time, it will go on the ballot provided the city attorney, after consultation with bonding experts, can devise a wording that will enlighten the public and, at the same time conform with the law.

SHOULD LAYERS BE SOLD NOW? THAT PUZZLES MANY

POULTRY EXPERT WRITES ON IMPORTANT SUBJECT TO OWNERS OF CHICKENS

The following article is from the pen of M. A. Schofield, president and general manager of the Poultrymen's Co-operative Milling association of Los Angeles, and will be found of especial interest at this time by all poultry keepers who have the problem of "whether to sell the layers now?" or to build more houses to take care of the growing pullets that are to make the "next fall" layers.

By M. A. SCHOFIELD

One of the problems confronting poultrymen is how to dispose of the old hens to the best advantage. The ordinary Leghorn hen does not find a ready sale in the poultry markets of the United States. With the increased cost of raising pullets to maturity, and the decreased returns from the sale of the discarded hens, there now appears a wider gap than ever to span. It is costing approximately twice as much to raise a pullet as we receive for the wornout hen. To some extent, it is going to be profitable to keep the best of our hens a year longer, thereby reducing not only the number of pullets hatched year by year, but also the number of old hens thrown upon the market.

Has Ups and Downs

In common with any other kind of business, keeping poultry has its ups and downs. There are years when operations are profitable and again there are seasons when the business not only shows no profit, but even a decided loss for a short period. This is what might be reasonably expected. Nevertheless the production of eggs in Southern California is of late years becoming much more stabilized. Fluctuations are fewer than they were several years ago.

It used to be related as a sort of grim joke that out of every 100 "would-be" poultrymen who went in the business in the spring, 95 had quit before Christmas. No such business mortality exists at the present time. Methods are so systematized that the failures in the poultry business are probably no greater than in many other lines, where such a high percentage of owners attempt to accomplish something for which they have had little or no special training.

Declared Impractical

A disposition on the part of many owners of laying hens to dispose of their flocks when a season of depression arrives is an unfortunate tendency noticeable at times. The reason they give is that it is cheaper to sell out at such periods and start again when conditions appear more favorable. While theoretically this might indicate good judgment, the difficulty experienced in again building up a laying flock has been so marked that it makes selling out entirely impractical. Considerable time is always needlessly lost in the renewal of a flock of layers, with the result that those who follow this policy of selling during dull times barely get started again when prices decline once more.

It is true that we usually find it profitable to cull more closely in times of depression than in times of prosperity, and we believe that such culling has resulted in a greater profit per hen. Nevertheless, those who intend to raise eggs or poultry for a livelihood should maintain their flocks during all periods, both profitable and unprofitable. In the event that the grower's financial condition will not permit him to retain his whole flock, it will surely be found advantageous to hold the better portion against such time as the tide turns and profits are again realized.

City Decides To Buy Fire Engine, $12,500

Following reports made by Trustees Lapham and Robinson, who had conducted independent investigations, the board of city trustees last night unanimously voted to purchase by lease contract an American-La France fire engine at a cost of $12,500. The apparatus will be used for the South Glendale section where, it was stated by Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the board, better service is absolutely necessary.

Trustee Lapham declared he had talked with experts, had conducted an investigation of the appaatus in use by the Los Angeles fire department and was satisfied with the offer of the American-La France concern.

At a recent meeting of the board it was proposed to have repairs made on the engine now in use, but it was developed at the meeting last night that this would be a waste of money.

Boy Scouts Will See 'Black Beauty' Picture

Boy Scouts of Glendale will be the guests of Manager William A. Howe of the Glendale Theatre tomorrow night to see "Block Beauty," the big feature film being presented this week-end. They will meet at the city hall at 6:30 o'clock and under the leadership of Scoutmaster Benjamin H. Robison, they will march to the theatre.

MONTE VISTA PARTY NETS OVER $250, IS ESTIMATED

MEETING OF COMMITTEES IS HELD LAST NIGHT AT HOME OF MRS. C. F. PARKER

A meeting of the committees which had been appointed in connection with the garden party given last Saturday for the benefit of the kitchen fund for Monte Vista home for children was held last night at the home of Mrs. C. F. Parker, 221 North Central avenue.

Those present were Mrs. R. W. Meeker, chairman; Mrs. O. H. Belew, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. P. E. Cory, Mrs. Arthur Dibbern, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. C. F. Parker, Mrs. G. B. Stearns and Miss Corinne Orff.

The returns to date from the sale of tickets and the sale of candy, ice-cream and punch at the garden party, show that at least $250 will be cleared. It is expected that an additional $100 will be made from the sale of tickets for an aeroplane ride, which will be donated by L. C. Brand.

Equipment for Kitchen

The question of equipment for the kitchen was then discussed.

Mrs. Meeker spoke very highly of the splendid co-operation which has been shown both by the merchants and the carpenters and painters who have not only helped in the kitchen, but in the other rooms of the home. She spoke especially of O. G. Thompson, who, she stated, has given of his services every Sunday.

The chairman reported that practically all bills up to date have been paid. After suggesting that a list of articles needed for the kitchen be submitted by members of the committees, the meeting adjourned.

Confer Knight Rank At Pythian Gathering

With Chancellor Commander Emil E. Framm presiding, the initiatory ceremonial at the regular meeting this week of Glendale lodge, No. 331, Knights of Pythias, was well attended by the "faithful," among whom were noted a number of visitors.

Messrs. Jones, Wilson, Bartlett and Palmer assisted in the work of conferring the Knight rank, adding impressiveness to the lesson of this sublime degree. They afterwards addressed the members upon timely topics of unusual interest to Pythians.

It is stated that this lodge is now noted for the hospitality that draws visitors from all directions and on this occasion voices were heard from Oregon and Ohio as well as Los Angeles lodges.

Indications point to another big exemplification of the Knight rank at the next meeting.

Thursday night a delegation from this lodge visited the lodge at Van Nuys going over in autos and report an unusually good time.

All resident Pythians are expected to attend the annual Knights of Pythias memorial services at Forest Lawn cemetery on Sunday, June 5, at 2 p. m. J. Stanley Brown, the newly elected grand chancellor commander, will make the principal address.

British Troops May Be Sent Upper Silesia

PARIS, May 20.—The dispatching of two additional battalions of British soldiers to Upper Silesia is under consideration in London, according to advices here.

The troops would be added to the small allied forces stationed there to preserve order during the recent plebiscite and which proved too small to stand off invasion of Polish insurgents.

'DEAR KATIE' HEARS SOMETHING ABOUT SCHOOL DAYS

YOUNG FOLK OF TODAY HAVE MUCH EASIER TIME, IS CONCLUSION REACHED

see. 'Twould be as unusual as our recent spell of spring weather. So I did.

I got to the big school house and went in and the first thing I did was write my name in a visitors' book. Then I inspected the rooms upstairs and down and the school kids begun to come in by the hundreds, all talking at once and making such a awful racket that I feel like I was in the stock exchange.

But, after while, they all got seated in about a dozen different rooms and fond parents gathered in admirin' throngs. So school begun.

Well, I went into one of the class room and listened for a while, but I didn't learn nothin' there, 'cause they sang and talked in Spanish and it was all Greek to me. So I went into another room where a lot of boys and girls was playing on typewriters and it looked like a newspaper office. Every room had a different kind of amusement. There was music, gography, spellin,' rithmatic, etc. It's all different now than it was in our school days, Katie.

Well, in about 15 minutes, after school started, it was recess and Katie, it was like a rough house. All the kids went from one room to another and up and down stairs, talkin' out loud and after while they all got seated and it was quiet again.

I went into the carpenter shop and a lot of kids was poundin' and sawin' and makin' a awful racket, and they didn't seem to care whether school kept or not. After another 15 minutes the whole school busted up into another recess and all the kids changed rooms again. I decided school life now days is just one recess after another. Those kids was awful unsatisfied. They couldn't stay anywhere very long.

Well, I wandered into another big room and I was surprised. The News didn't mention as how there was goin' to be refreshments served. but here was a lot of pretty maidens makin' biscuits and fussin' around gas stoves and the ice box. I kinda hung around there for a while, but nobody offered to wait on me, so I went into the school again, and Katie—there come another recess.

But I decided these recesses was had just for walkin' exercise, but I'll bet they get awful tired by the time school is over. Well, this time everybody and the general public went up stairs to the auditorium which is like a theatre with a stage and piano on it. There they had some speeches and a good time in general was had by all till school was out. It was like a big family party.

Well, it was awful interesting and I had a nice time, even if I didn't get no biscuits, and after all is said, Katie, I think I would like the school days of today myself if I was only a kid again, cause it's pretty soft to what it used to be. Ain't it so?

Yours 'till recess,

E. C. HALE.

The board assembled at 7:45 p. m., all members present. Minutes of the regular meeting of May 12, 1921, were read and approved.

Hearing of Protests

The hearing of protests against the assessments for lot cleaning was called up at this time. The clerk reported that none had been filed and there were no protestants present. This hearing covered the assessments made for work referred to in resolutions ordering the work, Nos. 1115, 1118, 1119, 1120.

Improvement of Arden Avenue

In accordance with advertisement calling for the same; bids were opened for the improvement of Arden avenue. The following bids were opened, read and publicly declared:

George R. Curtis—Grade per linear foot, $1.50; oil and tamp per square foot, 5c; curb class B per linear foot, 50c; sidewalk, per square foot, 19c.

Cornwell & Henderson—Grade per linear foot, 85c; oil and tamp per ear foot, 55c; sidewalk, per square foot, 20c. Referred to the city engineer.

Approval of Map Protested

Mr. Randall of the Grand View district appeared before the board and protested against the approval by the board of trustees of a map presented at the meeting of May 5, 1921, being a plat of lot 4, block 107, Rancheo Providencia, Scott tract. Mr. Trueman and others also presented their protests and in this connection a petition of protest was presented and ordered to be filed, signed by Adam Seebach and twenty-seven other property owners of the Grand View district. A communication was read from the Big Conduit Sand company, owners of property in the said district, stating that the corporation had been requested to dedicate a strip of land twenty-five feet in width along the east side of lot 3, in block 107 of the above named tract, for street purposes and notifying the board that the company does not feel justified in complying with this request. Parties desiring the approval of the map also presented their side of the question and, on motion of Trustee Robinson, it was ordered that map of tract No. 4198 previously presented to the board for adoption, be rejected, roll call as follows: Ayes, Bartlett, Henry, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson; noes, none.

Opinion on School District

Trustee Lapham at this time called for a report of the city attorney on the question of the participation in the election of June 28, next, of those portions of the Glendale school district lying outside the incorporated limits of the city. The opinion of the city attorney was read to the effect that the electors in those portions of Burbank, Cresenta and La Canada school districts are entitled to vote on members of the board of education.

Permit Wanted

Communication was read from R. L. Johnston asking permission to establish a boarding home for children. The clerk was instructed to notify the applicant that no permit is required.

Broadway at Central

The city manager presented a report as to the estimate cost of land to be taken for the Broadway cut-off west of Central avenue, the figures being furnished by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce; the amount being $21,700. Estimated cost of proposed park site at the southwest corner of Central avenue and Broadway, $11,450.

J. S. Thompson stated that in his opinion the majority of the people are in favor of the improvement provided that it contemplates buying the triangle for a park site, and expressed the opinion that same should be paid for by a large assessment district. Mr. Offutt stated in his opinion the estimate of the committee is entirely too low. The city manager suggested that a committee circulate a petition for the improvement, outlining the assessment district.

Increased Funds for Library

A resolution adopted by Glendale federation of Parent-Teacher associations was read in which the needs of the library were set forth and the opinion expressed that the trustees should appropriate to the library for the coming fiscal year the full amount allowed by law for such purposes. The chairman stated that the matter had already had the consideration of the board of trustees, who are disposed to favor the proposition. Communication was ordered to be filed.

Opinion As to Fire Truck No. 2

A communication was read, signed by W. M. Vreeland, W. E. Roake, E. C. Fairchild and Al Moniot stating that they had personally examined Fire Truck No. 2 and they indorse the statement as to its condition made in a report of the city manager under date of May 5, 1921, and recommend that the machine be replaced by one of modern design and construction. Ordered to be filed with the manager's report on the subject. In this connection Trustee Lapham stated that he had investigated very thoroughly the condition of this fire truck and is convinced the city cannot act too promptly in purchasing a La France fire engine, the type recommended by the city manager. Trustee Robinson expressed a similar opinion, and a motion of Trustee Lapham was adopted that the city of Glendale purchase one American-La France type 76, 6-cylinder, 120 h. p., 750 gallon, combination pumping engine and hose wagon for the sum of $12,500, under lease and contract with option to purchase, that has been presented to the board, and that the chairman of the board and the city clerk are authorized to execute the necessary contract by following roll call:: Ayes, Bartlett, Henry, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson; noes, none.

Memorial Day Celebration

Trustee Lapham reported that he had attended a committee meeting to provide for proper celebration of Memorial day. It has been decided that a parade will be formed at 2 o'clock p. m. at some point, not yet named, to march to Forest Lawn cemetery, where there will be appropriate ceremonies and that the board of trustees will be invited to attend and participate in a body. A motion made by him was adopted that the board accept such invitation.

Brand Boulevard Crossings

The city manager presented a report containing the results of an investigation made by the city engineer in regard to the status of Brand boulevard crossings within the city of Glendale. A motion was adopted all voting aye, instructing the city engineer to draft an ordinance establishing grades at all crossings on Brand boulevard, grades to conform to the roadway of the street.

Permit to Remove Tree

The city manager recommended that J. S. Thompson be permitted to remove one pepper tree at 133 South Central avenue, and on motion it was so ordered.

Refund Made

The city manager recommended that C. F. Herman be refunded $14 of a $15 license fee paid by him for permit and on motion it was so ordered by the following roll call: Ayes, Bartlett, Henry, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson; noes, none.

The city manager presented a report and certain recommendations in regard to gathering of garbage and waste matter, etc., and same was ordered to be filed.

Advertisement for Poles

The city manager recommended that the clerk be instructed to publish notice calling for bids to be received by the board up to 7:30 p. m., Thursday, June 2, 1921, for poles to be used by the public service department. On motion the clerk was instructed to advertise as recommended.

Laying of Water Service Mains

The city manager in a communication to the board called attention to the necessity for action in the laying of water service mains in accordance with the policy decided upon by the voters at the recent election and on motion of Trustee Lapham recommendations of the city manager were approved and the city attorney instructed to prepare an ordinance in accordance with the same.

Sewage Disposal in Canyon

The city manager presented a communication in regard to sewage disposal in the Verdugo Canyon district in which he requested authority to have plans and specifications prepared by the city engineer. He also requested permission to secure of Olmsted & Gillelen a proposition to prepare plans and specifications for modern sewage disposal plant of sufficient capacity to take care of the district to be served. On motion of Trustee Bartlett recommendation of the city manager was approved and adopted.

For Municipal Buildings

The city manager presented a communication expressing the opinion that at the bond election held March 29, 1921, the proposition to issue $26,000 municipal bonds to acquire land to construct municipal buildings for storing materials, vehicles, supplies and equipment did not receive the full consideration of the voters. In his belief had the people realized the need of these improvements they would have no doubt have authorized the issue of the bonds.

He further recommends that petition be circulated for the purpose of securing the signatures, as required by law, to resubmit the matter of 15 per cent more of the votes cast at the last election for governor, so that the matter may be re-submitted at the coming municipal election. He further requests permission to prepare and publish statement setting forth in detail the need for this expenditure. On motion of Trustee Henry recommendations of the city manager were approved and ordered to be put into effect.

Sidewalk on Private Property

City Engineer Hill reported that he had made surveys to establish the facts in the matter of the sidewalk on the west side of Pacific avenue, between Oak street and Colorado street, and about half is on private property on the west side of the street. Referred to the city manager to report upon at the next meeting.

Tract Maps Approved

During the temporary absence of Trustee Stephenson, Trustee Bartlett being the chair, the following maps were presented and approved.

Map of tract 4222, by resolution 1191.

Map of tract 4254, by resolution 1192.

Map of tract 4230, by resolution 1193.

City Attorney's Opinion

The city attorney presented a written opinion as to the right of way possessed by the Pacific Electric Railroad company on Brand boulevard. Its rights in general have been derived by grants from various property owners. As to street crossings its rights are apparently derived by that section of the civil code which provides that every Railway Corporation may construct its roads across streets and highways; except within municipalities. The Pacific Electric railway, however, was constructed through the Tropico district before the city of Tropico was in existence; this includes the crossing, Los Feliz Road. The code contains no restrictions about places of stopping trains or cars. A deed given by L. C. Brand and wife to the railway company, conveying the right of way between Cypress avenue and Los Feliz Road contains a provision to the effect that cars shall take on and let off passengers at Myrtle avenue (Los Feliz Road.) This provision however, is a mere personal agreement and neither the city or any other party is in a position to enforce it and further such a stipulation is subject to control of the Railroad Commission. A similar provision as to the stopping of cars is contained in a deed given by W. C. B. Richardson and is also subject to limitations set forth above. Ordered filed.

Some Facts Regards Your Small Change

WASHINGTON—"Small change" in use in the United States now amounts to $262,667,806, according to an official statement of the Treasury department, or $2.43 for each resident. This sum represents the total of all the pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars which are being carried around in pocketbook, in breeches pocket and which are kept on hand by stores and banks to make change.

The treasury statement supplies the answer to the oft-repeated speculative question as to how much one's fortune would be were he suddenly to become possessed of all the coins in the country under the value of one dollar. Exclusive of $78,000,000 worth of silver dollars in circulation, which are not included in the small change total, the nation's entire stock of silver and copper coins could be packed in a box twenty feet deep and sixty feet square and delivered in your front yard any fine morning, along with the morning paper and the bottle of milk. The entire sum would be not a large fortune, as fortunes now are rated in the United States.

The small change total is a comparatively insignificant sum if there is taken into consideration the entire amount of money in circulation in the United States. This totals $6,093,500,689, of which $4,763,479,499 is token money. Token money means gold and silver certificates, treasury notes and notes issued through the Federal Reserve bank system and by the National banks, all of which are promises to pay issued by the agencies named. Were all the holders of these promises to request immediate payment, the government and bank tellers probably would have to suspend all other business for a month to count the bills offered.

Taken by volume, however, all the money in the United States makes a rather insignificant showing. It could all be gathered together in an ordinary office of 200 rooms or so. Any building of six stories with a five-foot frontage and about the same depth would store all the token money, while four men, one at each corner, could easily guard it.
